

School of Missions Planned by Methodists

At the Methodist church a school of missions will be presented for six Sunday afternoons. Each of the sessions will begin at 4 p.m., and will continue until 5:45 or 6 p.m. The first session will be on Sunday, February 21. The last session will be on Sunday, March 28.

Studies for the children through the Junior high age will be under the direction of Mrs. A. Neil Dawes. There will be adequate number of teachers to give personal attention to the children who come. This group will study: "Our Spanish Speaking Neighbors." There will be stories and handwork accompanying the work.

The youth and adults will study "Heritage and Destiny," which has been prepared by Bishop Gerald Kennedy, who was pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church in Lincoln a number of years ago. This course will be taught by the pastor of the church.

In both divisions of the school much use will be made of visual aids to add to interest and learning.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)

Rev. Wayne A. Hall, pastor Today (Thursday) the Women's Missionary council meets at the home of Mrs. John Wells at 2 p.m.

We are enjoying a profitable study of Bible doctrines. Rev. Clyde King of Broken Bow is the instructor. The attendance is good. Friday night will be the closing night of this special Christian training course.

Sunday services as follows: Sunday-school at 10 a.m.; worship at 11 a.m.; ladies will be in charge of the service as this is national WMC day; children's story hour at 7:30 p.m.; evangelistic service at 8 p.m. The public is invited to all services.

Tuesday, February 16: Christ's Ambassador meeting at 8 p.m.

Wednesday, February 17: Bible study and prayer service at 8 p.m.

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." II Timothy 3:16.

Compete in 4-H Speech Meet Here

METHODIST (Chambers)

Rev. L. R. Hansberry, pastor Sunday-school, 10:30 a.m., Clair Grimes, superintendent; worship, 11:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Grenier and family spent Sunday in Picktown, S.D.

METHODIST (Emmet)

Rev. Wallace B. Smith, pastor We're expecting a large number of folks at the missionary rally at O'Neill Sunday. Plan to spend the afternoon and evening. Rev. Wesley M. Smith will be in the pulpit at Emmet on Sunday morning. Reverend Jay will also be with us.

Bible study will soon be a thing of the past—that is the present series based on "Lance Mantle's Through the Bible in 26 Weeks." Watch for a week of special emphasis led by the pastor. There'll be visitation and preaching.

Every Sunday morning a welcome awaits the stranger and the friend at Emmet Methodist church. That was a fine crowd last Sunday! Let's all be present next Sunday morning at 9:45.

To Mission—Among those attending the St. Mary's-St. Francis Mission, S.D., basketball game Friday were Mr. and Mrs. John Donohoe, Mrs. Harold Weier, Mrs. Harry Graham and Mrs. George Head and daughter, Jean.

Chimes Planned as Memorial to Pastor
The official board of the Methodist church at O'Neill has decided to raise funds for a memorial to the late Rev. V. R. Bell, former pastor, who died in Grand Island in December. With the approval of Reverend Bell's family, the board has decided to purchase "Bell memorial chimes," which will be operated from the church's organ and would be audible throughout the city.
Raymond Eby is secretary-treasurer of the memorial fund. The board is pointing toward having the chimes installed by Easter Sunday.
