

Blues Top Bassett, Yield to Albion

Finish Season with 11 Wins, 6 Losses

Coach Paul Baker's O'Neill high school team won and lost in two outtings during the past six days. Both games were played on the home court. The Blues scuttled Rock county high (Bassett), 56-46, and absorbed a 55-72 licking at the hands of the Albion Cardinals.

O'Neill 58; Bassett 48. The Baker kids commanded an early lead in Friday's affair with Bassett, building a 20-11 first quarter advantage. The count was 33-18 at the half with Forward Larry Chase having rolled up 14 of the O'Neill points. It was an unusual second half as O'Neill could connect on only two fielders. The Eagles, however, annexed 21 freethrows; and the first half lead enabled them to coast to victory even though Bassett outpointed O'Neill, 30-25, in the second half.

Mr. Chase rolled up an impressive 26-point personal mark while Marvin Bussinger was best for Bassett with 15.

Albion 72; O'Neill 55. The Albion Cardinals, boasting an impressive season's record with wins over CIA Columbus and nine other victims, rolled to a 72-55 victory over the O'Neill Eagles here Tuesday night. Albion simply had too much height and too much ball handling savvy for the Blues, who were making their final regularly-scheduled home appearance.

The defeat closed the OHS slate with seven defeats compared to 11 victories. Albion has won 10 and lost six. O'Neill jumped to a seven-point lead in the early minutes, then Albion moved ahead, 20-17, as the first period ended. O'Neill could muster only eight points in the second period compared to Albion's 14. The Blues sank two out of eight freethrow attempts in the second period and muffed three layups. This broke their back and from then on it was Albion's show. Albion had two fine guards, Robinson and Johnson, who collectively accounted for 41 points.

Larry Chase hit 20 points for O'Neill while Johnson accounted for 22 for Albion.

In a preliminary, the St. Mary's grade-schoolers defeated the O'Neill graders.

Bassett Downs Broncos with Bussinger Hot

STUART — The Stuart high Broncos were scuttled, 37-65, Tuesday night, February 16, at Bassett. Marvin Bussinger got 18 points for the winners. Stuart gals won the volleyball game over Bassett, 35-22.

Stuart Wins 2 Class C Upsets

(Special to The Frontier) ATKINSON — Those Stuart high Broncos are the talk of the district class C basketball tourney in progress here, having scored two stirring upsets.

First Round

(Monday Night) Stuart 60; Bartlett 45. The Stuart high Broncos launched the class C basketball tourney in Atkinson Monday night with a rousing upset, defeating Wheeler county high (Bartlett), 60-45. Bartlett was one of the seeded teams. Stuart's scoring was led by Shald with 21 points, while Rosso led Bartlett.

Stuart led Bartlett 12-5 at the first quarter, 24-18 at the half, and 44-33 at the end of the third.

St. Joe 56; Butte 40. Two well-matched teams squared off for Monday's number two game, but St. Joseph's hall (Atkinson) proved too much for the strong Butte team, 56-40.

St. Joe was in front 34-19 at the half, and moved to a 45-29 margin at the start of the final period.

Clarence Schmit tallied 22 points for the victors, while Quick was best for Butte with 11.

The fourth quarter turned into a half-hour affair because of the many fouls that were called.

Atkinson 55; St. Mary's 49. Best game of the evening was the Atkinson-St. Mary's (O'Neill) game which ended 55-49 in favor of the elongated Balers.

Atkinson, which sported an up-and-down season's record, jumped to an early lead sparked by Freddy Dobrovolsky's two fielders and five freethrows during the first half.

The Balers enjoyed a 21-11 advantage when St. Mary's Terry Wanser sank four successive fielders in four tries. Atkinson was in front, 24-23, at intermission.

The third period was a weird, see-saw affair and ended 36-41. St. Mary's moved ahead in three points as the fourth stanza opened. But personal fouls were the crowning undoing.

The Balers succeeded in making only one fielder during the frantic fourth but cashed in on 15 consecutive freethrows to ice the victory and knock the Cards from tournament running.

Duane Weier, SMA center, was chased from the game via the foul route with five minutes to go and the Cardinal cause was completely lost when Guard Dick Graham was escorted to the showers, same reason, with 3½ minutes remaining. Wanser rolled up 18 points for SMA; Gary Small hit 18 for Atkinson.

It was curtains for Coach Fritz Bazelman and the 1954 edition of the Cards, who returned home to pack their togs.

Old Number 750

No. 750 happens to be the stock number on a 4-piece Broyhill bedroom suite. It has a beautiful 5-drawer, 48-inch vanity with a large framed plate-glass mirror, an extra large 4-drawer chest with a small framed inset mirror on the top, a comfortable padded bench with back rest and full sized bed.

This suite is of extra good quality in sliced woodwork, in waterfallo styling. The younger generation thinks waterfallo suites are out of date. We had two of these suites more than we needed so last week they were put on sale at $189.50. Only one sold.

The boss called up Monday and wanted to know if both No. 750's moved.

I answered: "One left." He said, "Cut it to $119.50." and, as an after-thought, he asked: "How much did they cost us?"

Before I got back to the telephone the operator cut me off with the words stuck in my mouth. "$141.00 and $13.40 freight apiece." Old 750 will be on display in our east window Thursday, Friday and Saturday, too, if not sold sooner. This is probably the first time in history that a brand new suite of this quality was priced at $119.50.

Don't let even a blizzard stop you from seeing this one if you need a bedroom suite.
