Weekly Market Report

The Atkinson Livestock Market

ago and about steady with our good sale of two weeks ago.

Atkinson, Nebraska

Tuesday, March 9th, Auction Cattle receipts totaled 1,311 head. Several large consignments of good quality cattle were well received by a large crowd of buyers. Prices generally were higher than a week

Good to choice steer calves sold mainly 21.00-22.25, better kinds on up to 23.00 cwt. A string of 16 head of fancy heifer calves topped the heifer sale at 18.35 cwt. All the heifer calves sold exceptionally well, the bulk of them 17.25-18.00, a few plainer kinds around 17.00 cwt. The load lots of yearling steers sold well: 42 head of 450 pound kinds went at 21.20; 34 head of 675 pound steers at 20.80, while the heavier end of this same consignment brought 21.20 and weighed 785 pounds. A straight load of 980 pound 2-year-olds, just average for Breding cows found a rather sticky market. Several large strings of Angus cows sold from 136.00 on down to 120.00 for the older offerings. Beef cows and fat heifers were bringing 11.50-1275, with and cutters 9.50 to 10.75, with most of the strong cutters around 10.50 cwt. Bologna bulls 10.00 to 13.25 cwt. Next Auction March 16th. Inquiry continues good on all some straight barrelled fleshy kinds up to 13.50 cwt. Canners kinds and classes. Let us sell your next consignment.
