Checks Blueprints

Navy Lt. (jg) Charles H. Pogson (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pogson of Fairview, Pa., and husband of the former Miss Delores M. Tesch of Atkinson, checks one of the many blueprints used to aid the maintenance and repairing of electrical equipment on board the battleship USS Missouri. He was recently promoted to his present rank. He entered the navy in October, 1940, and served as an enlisted man before being commissioned an ensign in May, 1952.

Recorded Program to Be Aired on KMMJ

Ted Haas' Quizzes Feature of Day

CHAMBERS—A tape recording was made at the Taylor Motor Co. garage in Chambers on Saturday afternoon. Ted Haas of radio station KMMJ, Grand Island, was present to interview different people on subjects of common interest. The broadcast will be heard Saturday, March 20, at 11:15 a.m. from the Grand Island station.

J. W. Walter of Chambers was presented a wristwatch as a "good neighbor award." Vernon Harley of the Harley Produce and president of the Commercial club, will cite Mr. Walter for his many community interests.

Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, the Frontier's Chambers correspondent, filling the spot usually taken by the local newspaper editor, will read a brief editorial in which she comments on the work of a newspaper correspondent.

Among those interviewed by Haas will be Mrs. Blanche Sager, chairman of the health and safety committee of the national home demonstration council.

Haas was an hour late in reaching Chambers because of the blizzard. He had had an appearance earlier in the day at Wood Lake and had been snowbound the day before in Valentine.

Greetings to Haas and the listeners will be extended by Mayor Edwin Wink and the "home-town booster" will be Clair Grimes, rural mail carrier and secretary of the Commercial club. He will speak for one minute on why Chambers is the "best town in the whole state of Nebraska." In charge of the "critter," a cow-calling horn which calls time, will be 10-year-old Kenneth Coolidge, Chambers farm boy.

The town's Commercial club staged a free show during the afternoon at the Golden Gate theater. A large crowd attended the show and was on hand for the recording.

Open-House Held at Phone Office

CHAMBERS — Mr. and Mrs. Ken Werner held open-house at their new telephone office Saturday, March 13.

Coffee and doughnuts were served and 191 persons registered. A door prize of an upholstered telephone chair with light was given at a drawing of names at 9 p.m. Kay Jeffers of Chambers received the chair.

West Residence Is Damaged by Fire

EWING—The Ewing fire department was called to the Lloyd West home on Friday morning, where a fire due to defective wiring had made considerable amount of damage before arrival of firemen. The blaze was soon put out. Much damage was done by smoke and water.
