The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Wallace B. Smith at 2 p.m.

The bride wore a white ballerina-length gown fashioned with a short-sleeved lace bodice buttoned with tiny buttons from the Peter Pan collar to the pointed waistline. The full skirt was of double nylon net, trimmed with lace, over taffeta. Lace mits completed her costume.

Her fingertip illusion veil trimmed with lace was held in place by a coronation crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. Her jewelry was a five-strand pearl necklace and pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations with white satin streamers.

The bridesmaid, Miss Shirley Fox, sister of the bridegroom, wore a ballerina-length gown of light green net over taffeta with a matching floral bandeau and she carried a bouquet of yellow jonquils.

The bridegroom wore a brown suit and his attendant, Adolph Nachman, brother of the bride, wore a medium blue suit. They wore white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride was graduated from Stuart high school with the class of 1953 and since that time has been employed as cashier at Robinson's store in Lincoln.
