 ited his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ressel, in Marshall, Tex.

Clauson Returns from Church Meet

D. H. Clauson, Mrs. Clauson and Rev. Samuel Lee, pastor of First Presbyterian church, returned last week from Chicago, Ill., where Mr. Clauson was delegate to the meeting of the National Council of Presbyterian Men. The meeting, held in the Palmer House, drew about three thousand delegates from all parts of the country, and from every occupation.

Although several pastors attended the meeting, it was primarily a meeting of laymen, with the theme of the session centered in the witness of the layman.

Mr. Clauson will make a report to the Men's council of the O'Neill church at the council's next meeting.

Leading speakers included:
 Dr. Rex Stowers Clements of Bryn Mawr, Pa., who said: "Let us note three things about our church. First, it is not controlled by clergy. Laymen have a large share in ordering its affairs. Second, it is not primarily an organization. Third, the church is not an end unto itself."

Congressman Walter H. Judd of Minnesota: "We are confused.
 Civilization is on the defensive.
 In some places we are holding our own, in others we are losing terribly. We have to go back and understand and fulfill our Christian heritage as our forefathers did in their generation. We can do nothing without a leader. We should rededicate ourselves to Him."

Luther W. Youngdahl, judge of the U.S. district court for the District of Columbia: He praised President Eisenhower for his understanding of the "importance of prayer and faith in God in the solution of our ills."
