Boss Looks for Farm Sales

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE
 It's getting to be housecleaning time again. No matter how excellent the housekeeper, there are usually a few extra things to be done this time of year.
 If you have some faded rugs, you may want to brighten them. To renew a faded rug clean and dampen it. Prepare a dye bath of the desired shade. Place the rug flat on several layers of newspapers. Apply the hot dye with a scrub brush. It is best to deepen the original shade. Do not attempt to change the color.
 Sometimes, if outside windows aren't too dirty, they can be cleaned by using the garden hose (full force) on them and then polishing with paper toweling or crushed newspaper.
 If you have the old fashioned type window shades, salt can sometimes be rubbed into them to clean them. Rub with a soft cloth and remove the salt again with a clean cloth.
 Sometimes you can remove the grease spots from rugs or overstuffed furniture by rubbing baking soda liberally into the spot. Allow to dry and then remove baking soda with the vacuum cleaner or the carpet sweeper.
 If you need to patch wallpaper and the new pieces are too bright, let them stand in the sunshine until the colors are faded to match the color of the used paper.
 If you need to paint window screens, fasten them to the clothes line and they can easily be painted on both sides without turning them all the time.
 If you're painting a ceiling with the old type paint brush, slip half a rubber ball over the handle of the paint brush to form a cup. Then paint won't run down your arm all the time you are painting.
Dish That's Different for Lenten Meals
 Here's a dish that's a bit different for lenten meals.
DEVILED EGGS WITH RICE
 Two cups boiled rice, six hard cooked eggs, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon chopped pickle, one teaspoon chopped pimento, one teaspoon chopped parsley, vinegar or mayonnaise, pimento or tomato sauce.
 Press the rice into a greased round mold and set over hot water until ready to use. Cut the eggs in half lengthwise and remove yolks. Mash the yolks with seasonings and add enough vinegar or mayonnaise to moisten. Fill egg cavities with the mixture. Turn the rice out on a hot plate, arrange the eggs around it, garnish with strips of pimento and green pepper and serve hot with pimento or tomato sauce. Serves six.
SCRAMBLED EGGS AND RICE
 Two cups cooked hot rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, three eggs, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, one tablespoon fat.
 Beat the eggs. Add the hot rice and seasonings. Mix well. Heat the fat in a heavy frying pan. Add the rice and egg mixture. Fry until dry, stir with a broad spatula or pancake turner to prevent burning. Serve hot for breakfast or lunch. A cup of left over diced meat, fish or vegetables may be added to the mixture before cooking. Serves six. — tfw —
Sonny Devours Basketball Writings
Dear Frontier Woman:
 At our house the boss grabs The Frontier to see who is having a sale next week and does the want ad section while Sonny waits impatiently to see if his ball game was reported. (He suits up for basketball and then the others rib him, but I tell him I can remember a patch on the seat of their pants before their shoes needed new soles.) I wait and watch for my chance to turn to The Frontier Woman's page to see "what-is-it" and "who-got-it" this week before I look to see what is news.
 I wonder if anyone would be interested in some "tricks of the trade" I have picked up lately?
 Try hanging overalls up by the front pockets. It opens them up so they dry so much quicker and I seldom have to dry the tops in the house.
 When hanging clothes in cold weather, try pinning small articles, especially infants' garments, socks, handkerchiefs, etc., on with the snap clothespins to some old towel or anything you can snap quite a few things onto. This you can hang on the line with a couple of pins and take off easily.
Apple pies are better for sprinkling brown sugar and dabs of butter on the crust before you put the apples in. Then forget what you have done and make your pie as usual. The crust is better with milk instead of water.
 If your family is tired of string beans creamed or cooked with bacon, try this:
 Sauté two apples (diced) in two tablespoons of butter. Add a quart of string beans. When boiled 10 minutes (for safety's sake) add one cup sour cream and serve as soon as hot.
 Add two tablespoons sugar and vinegar and a cup of diced lunch meat to a jar.
 I add one cup sugar, one cup cream and two cups flour to a

Mrs. Marvin Richter, a luncheon was served.
 Sunday, March 21, supper guests of the Albrecht Carson family were Reverend Walstad and family, M.Brs. Anna Carson, Mrs. Fay Pinkerman and grandson, Randy Pinkerman.
 Ray Wilson had supper Thursday, March 18, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald while assessing in southern Scott township.
 I would close with a good bread recipe but that would be stealing Mrs. Pease's thunder. Nothing is quite so tasty or nourishing as good home made bread and I fear the children get too little of it, for health's sake, or memory's sake. Remember how we gobbled down mama's hot bread when we came starving, and I mean starving from school?
 I incorporate your neat little tricks in my business of home-making. Won't you try — MINE?
St. Patrick's Theme at Ladies' Aid Meet
REDBIRD—The Carson sisters, Mrs. Carrie Hunter, Mrs. Mary Wolfe and Lizzie Carson, entertained the Dorsey Ladies Aid Wednesday, March 17. They used the St. Patrick's day theme for the afternoon program and the table decorations.
 Those who came later for luncheon were Reverend Walstad, Thomas Hiscocks, Lee Brady, June and Claranna Carson, Mrs. Wills Schollmeyer, Bruce and Barty and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wiley.
 The next meeting was Wednesday March 31 with Mrs. Fay Pinkerman.

 Bruce Schollmeyer spent Friday, Mar. 19, with Rexford Carson after the 4-H meeting at Osborn's. They rode their bikes the five miles to Redbird the next day.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Wright, Jackie and Ben were entertained in the Howard Wells home Wednesday, March 17, honoring Howard's birthday anniversary.
 Mr. and Mrs. Nick Baker and Mrs. Lillian Baker and Jo Ann of Lynch attended the funeral of an aged relative, Mrs. Emma Baker at Wayne Wednesday, March 17.
 Minnie McDonald presided at St. Scott Community club meeting Tuesday evening, March 16, with Lela Carson and family. Each member gave an Irish joke for roll call. Five dollars were voted as a donation to the Red Cross. Lela Carson gave part of the lesson on "Sewing". The next meeting will be Monday evening, April 19, with Marie Wilson.

Morton Gill, 84, Rites in California

STUART—Funeral services were held at Long Beach, Calif., Saturday, March 27, for Morton Gill, 84 founder of one of the oldest businesses in Stuart, Mr. Gill died Tuesday, March 23, following a heart attack.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gill moved to Long Beach in 1940 but made frequent trips to Stuart to look after his interest in the Gill Motor Co.
 The company was originally a partnership between Charles Dohney, now of Norfolk, and Mr. Gill, founded in 1912. Since that partnership was dissolved the company has been continually in the family the past 40 years and is now operated by a son, Walter, and grandson, Morton "Jimmy" Gill and Gardener Gill.
 He was married to Bessie Hunt in October, 1899.
 Survivors include: widow; son, Walter of Stuart; daughters; Mrs. Paul Enger of Bassett; Mrs. Carl Carlson, Mrs. J. D. Scott and Mrs. Jack Hall, all in California, and Mrs. Paul Todd of Chicago, Ill.
Other Stuart News
 B. C. Engler went to Omaha on Tuesday, March 23, where he attended a convention. He also visited with his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Engler and daughter. He returned home Friday.
 A/3c and Mrs. Merle Thurlow arrived here recently from Bryan, Tex., to spend part of his 30-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thurlow, and family. He will report to Parks air force base in California April 16 for overseas assignment.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thurlow and daughter, Lois, and A/3c and Mrs. Merle Thurlow went to Milford Saturday, March 20, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gesierich. They returned Sunday, March 21, excepting Lois, who remained for a week.
