Strawberry Island Cookies

Strawberry Island Cookies... the very name implies a cookie you will want to try. And once you taste this crisp oatmeal cookie, you'll treasure it always. It's the perfect accompaniment to cool drinks in the summer. These rich cookies have an "island" center of strawberry jam and a pineapple wedge. Surely this recipe deserves high rating in your collection of the best!

Strawberry Island Cookies (Makes 2 1/2 dozen cookies)

Cooly Dough:
1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup shortening, soft
-1 egg yolk
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons pineapple juice
1 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked

Glaze:
1 egg white
sugar

Filling:
Strawberry jam (about 1/4 cup)
Pineapple wedges (about 1/2 cup)

For the cookies sift together flour, soda and salt into bowl. Add shortening, egg yolk, sugar and pineapple juice. Beat until smooth, about 2 minutes. Blend in rolled oats. (Dough will be quite stiff.) Shape dough into balls; place on greased cookie sheet. Make a hollow in the center of each cookie.
Beat egg white slightly; brush lightly over unbaked cookies. Sprinkle with sugar. Put about a teaspoon of jam in center of each unbaked cookie. Top with a small wedge of pineapple. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 12 to 15 minutes.

Students who will accompany their instructor, Laurence Lange, to Lincoln are: Garold Anderson, Don Butterfield and Kenneth Huston for competition in dairy cattle selection and livestock judging; Raymond Mensch and Clarence Focken, welding and forging; and Gary Shermer and Jim O'Connor, farm machinery. Winners in the dairy products judging and dairy cattle selection contests will represent Nebraska at the national contests at Waterloo, Ia., in October. Contestants who win in the meats, poultry and livestock divisions will be eligible to compete in Kansas City, Mo. Gary Shermer, president of the Atkinson chapter of Future Farmers of America, and Don Mitchell, sentinel, will represent their chapter at the state FFA convention in Lincoln.

Miss Birmingham Elected to Honorary Society—Miss Marde Birmingham, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, has been elected to Enfante de Marie sodality at Duchesne college in Omaha, where she is a junior. The sodality is a worldwide group in which the aspirants must apply for membership and pass a rigid entrance test. Prospective members are given more than one chance to apply, but Miss Birmingham succeeded on the first trial.

Miss Birmingham's entrance into the sodality is unique in that she is third member of her family to join. Her sisters, the Misses Mary Louise and Barbara, were accepted several years ago while attending Barabara college at Lake Forest, Ill., and Duchesne, respectively. Mrs. Birmingham attended her daughter's installation at Omaha last Thursday.

Back from California—Mrs. S. R. Robertson returned Saturday from a several weeks' visit in California with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Long, and family. Mr. Robertson met her in Grand Island.
