Hynes Has Lead in 'Good News'

The musical comedy, "Good News," a story full of luster and life that made the '20's roar was put on for a full house by the Creighton university players at the Creighton auditorium in Omaha last Thursday evening.

Star of the cast, Robert Hynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hynes, of O'Neill, did an exceptional job portraying the football hero who was facing scholastic difficulties on the eve of the big game. His role required him to sing, act and in general look like the handsome athletic idol and the audience got a thoroughly entertaining look at what college was like in the 1920's.
