

Lane Rites Held Saturday at Stuart

STUART — Funeral services were held Saturday, May 29, at the Community church for Henry Ralph Lane, 87.

The late Mr. Lane was born March 4, 1867, near Beardstown, Ill., the eldest son of William and Polly Lane. When he was a child the family moved to Cass county, Iowa. In the autumn of 1884, when he was a youth of 17, he came with his parents by covered wagon to Nebraska and settled on a farm northwest of Stuart.

In 1895 the family moved to Nevada, Mo., but returned to Nebraska in 1898 where Ralph spent the remainder of his life.

On May 12, 1901, he was married to Lottie Hart at the home of Elder A. F. Dugger, sr., near Carns.

Mr. Lane was engaged in farming and stock raising until 1941 when he moved to Stuart because of his wife's failing health. After her death in June, 1942, he continued to maintain his home in Stuart. Even though his eyesight failed gradually, so that he finally became almost blind, he was still able to keep his home.

Survivors include: Sons—William of Winneton, Ross of Colorado Springs, Colo., Herbert of Stuart; daughter—Mrs. Milo W. (Ora) Blowers of Oklahoma City, Okla.; 12 grandchildren and a great-granddaughter (born the day before his death); sister—Mrs. Fannie Fuller of Stuart; brothers—Clyde of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Owen of Newport and Ross of Provo, Utah.
