Obermire-Scott Nuptials at Stuart

STUART—Miss Mary Augusta Obermire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Obermire of Stuart, and James Bryson Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Scott of Lincoln, were married Saturday, May 29, in St. Boniface Catholic church.

Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the double-ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

The church was decorated with peonies, sweet rocket and snowballs.

Richard Henning of Atkinson, cousin of the bride, sang "Adorate De Voto" and "Ave Maria" with Sister Vera at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown which she designed and made. It was styled with a fitted tissue velvet bodice with long sleeves which came to a point over her hands. The bouffant floor-length skirt was of tulle over taffeta. Her veil, edged with velvet, was held in place by a high tiara of net embroidered with pearls and rhinestones which the bride's mother had worn on her wedding day.

She carried blue roses and a white pearl rosary which was made by her grandmother.

Miss Shirley Brinkmeyer of Courtland, a friend of the couple, was maid-of-honor and wore a blue lace over nylon net dress and carried corsage of blue and white roses.

Miss Karen Obermire, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and was gowned identically to the maid-of-honor. She also carried a blue and white rose corsage.

They were matching headpieces.

Brenda Sue Obermire, small sister of the bride, was flower-girl. She wore a blue nylon dress trimmed with white lace, and wore a matching headpiece. Mikie Lee Scott of Omaha, nephew of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue suit and carried the rings which were in a white velvet pillow edged with tulle.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Preston L. Scott, jr., of Omaha as bestman and Joe Obermire, brother of the bride, Don and Dean Obermire, cousins of the bride, ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

The tables were decorated in the bride's chosen colors of blue and white and the bride's table was centered with the wedding cake baked by her mother and decorated by Miss Barbara Milnar of Atkinson.

Mrs. John Henning, aunt of the bride, poured while Mrs. Charles Meyer, Mrs. Lawrence Slaymaker, Mrs. Gilbert Engler, Misses Joan Henderson, Joyce Seibken, Janice Scholz, Doreen Shattuck and Evelyn Kaup assisted with the serving.

Mrs. John Obermire and Miss Rita Obermire were in charge of the gift table while Miss Nola Obermire had charge of the guest book.

The bride chose a three-piece light blue linen suit for going away.

After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Lincoln at 314 South 17th street.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Henning, Mrs. Gilbert Engler, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Obermire, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Obermire and John Obermire, all of Atkinson; Gordon A. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. John Obermire, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Fiedler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A.
