Newlyweds Will Live in Alaska

SPENCER — Janet Alene Christensen and Reginald B. Pinkerman were united in marriage at a quiet double-ring ceremony at Spencer Friday evening, May 14.

Rev. Marjorie Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. The bride appeared in a waltz-length gown of nylon net and lace over taffeta and nylon lace mitts. Her fingertip veil was of nylon net trimmed with illusion lace and was held in place by a coronet of seedpearls. Her only jewelry was gold and fine-stone earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom wore a suit of conventional blue and a silver tie bar, a gift from the bride. His boutonniere was a white carnation. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vigo Christensen of Monowi. For the past three years she has been a teacher in a Boyd county rural school.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Veldon Pinkerman of Redbird. He entered the armed forces in February, 1953, and is now stationed at Ft. Richardson air base near Anchorage Alaska.

The young couple were chartered by a large crowd of neighbors and friends Monday evening, May 17. Treats of candy and cigars were distributed by the newlyweds. On Wednesday evening, May 19, they staged a free wedding dance for a large crowd at the Lynch ballroom.

The Pinkermans departed Wednesday, May 26 on their wedding trip to Anchorage, Alaska, where they will make their home. For traveling the bride wore a suit of navy blue with red accessories.

Bauer-Borg Nuptials in Ewing Church

EWING — Gladioli, mums, large daisies with ferns and candelabra decorated the altar of St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing for the 9:30 a.m., double-ring nuptial ceremony which united in marriage Miss Maxine Bauer of Ewing and Dewayne Borg of O'Neill.

Rev. P. F. Burke, church pastor, officiated. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer of Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Axel Borg of O'Neill.

Sister M. Flores of St. Mary's academy, O'Neill, presided at the organ. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lynas of Winner, S.D., sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day" and "Pater Angelicus."

The bride appeared in a gown of white satin with triple layers of brocade nylon. The gown featured a deep "V" neckline. The long sleeves were jointed at the wrist and the skirt was full with a three-yard train. Her bouquet was of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. The only jewelry she wore was a three-strand crystal necklace—a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Nance Bauer of Ewing, maid-of-honor, wore a strapless gown of white net over taffeta, ballerina length, with a lace bolero jacket. Bridesmaids were Joan Bauer and Patty Bauer, both of Ewing, Beverly Jewell of Dallas, S.D., and Belva Tech of Salt Lake City, Utah. They wore gowns identical to the maid-of-honor. Each carried a bouquet of daisies with pastel ribbons.

The bestman was Harold Elkins of Chambers. Ronald Borg, Donald Borg, Russell Borg and Larry Pribil, all of O'Neill, ushered.

Dinner was served at the country home of the bride's parents. Ladies assisting with the serving were Mrs. Joe Thoendel, Mrs. Frank Bolwitt, Mrs. John Bollwitt and Mrs. Ed Urban. Assisting were Bernadine and Sharon Rotherham, Helen Rotherham, Rosalie Spittler, Joan and Yvonne Minarik, Nancy Paul and Mary Miller.

Three hundred guests attended the afternoon reception. Mrs. Ralph Beaudin of Omaha was in charge of the guest book. The gift book and gift table were in charge of Mrs. Stanley Bartak of Ewing and Mrs. E. W. Rosbury of Deadwood, S.D.

The decorated wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Melvin Rexine.

Mrs. Borg chose for her going away costume a rust linen redingote with beige accessories. After an extended wedding trip to California, the young couple will be at home in O'Neill. Mr. Borg is employed by the Lohaus Motor Co.
