Improvement Club Has Busy Year

Page Group Points to Record

PAGE—Members of the Page Improvement club enjoyed a breakfast at the park Monday morning. Mrs. Otto Matschull, president, called the meeting to order. Business matters of the past year were completed.

The new officers were installed: Mrs. C. E. Walker, president; Mrs. Melvin Held, vice-president; Mrs. Edwin Smith, secretary; and Mrs. Melvin Roach, treasurer. They were installed by Mrs. Harry Harper. Each officer was presented a corsage.

The new officers took care of new business and the meeting closed. Following are some of the projects the members of the Page Improvement club had charge of during the past year—doing much work for the city of Page, including having gone to a great deal of expense for material and the hiring of help.

Repairing playground equipment, having the trees trimmed in the park mowing of the park for the season, painting the front of the theater and the name of the theater. The ladies served dinner to the O'Neill Saddle club community day, sponsored the parade and served lunches in the Legion hall during the day and evening. They took charge of selling tickets and popcorn at the theater for a few weeks to help the business men.

They served lunch at a school for a machinery show sponsored by Carl Max. They cleaned and painted the interior of the theater and furnished new curtains for same. They served supper for the alumni banquet, sponsored the polo drive, bought new lights for the theater, had the water fountain at the bank corner repaired and had the fireplaces in the park rebuilt.

Mrs. C. A. Townsend donated a picnic table for the park.
