Lou Ann Fritton

Competes at Lincoln

Miss Lou Ann Fritton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Fritton, represented O'Neill at the state "Miss Nebraska" contest held in Lincoln during the weekend. Preceding the actual contest, which was held at the Turnpike ballroom and where the entries were judged in swimsuit and in evening dress, the participants were dined at the Italian Village.

Basis of judging in the contest was beauty of face and figure, charm, poise and personality. Besides the coveted trophy, the winner received a wardrobe. She will go to Long Beach, Calif., on an expense paid trip July 15 through 25 to participate in the "Miss Universe" contest being held there then.

Miss Fritton placed fourth in the group of 24 entries.
