

Church Notices

METHODIST (O'Neill)
Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor
Daily vacation church school is now in progress at your First Methodist church. School begins each morning, Monday through Friday, at 9 a.m. Time of adjournment is varied, but before noon. We have a fine enrollment this year of 110 boys and girls from 3-years-old through junior high. There is still room for more.

Sunday is Methodist student day. The observance begins with a breakfast for youth at 8:30 a.m. The claims of Christian professions will be presented. This event is sponsored by the W.S.C.S. At 9:30 a.m., the cherub and junior choirs will rehearse. At 9:45 a.m., the church school hour begins, worship at 11 a.m. The sermon will deal with "The Inner Word."

The annual senior youth camp of the northeast district Methodist churches begins June 20 at 3 p.m., at Ponca state park. The subject matter this year deals with the question: "Does a belief in God matter?" Young people who will be in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades are invited to attend. Young folks should register immediately. Contact your pastor if you desire to attend camp this year.

Intermediate camp, for young folk in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades next fall begins Sunday, June 26. See your pastor now!

METHODIST (Page-Inman)

Sunday, June 13: Inman worship service at 9:45 a.m., followed by church school at 10:45 a.m., Karl Keyes, superintendent; Page church school at 10 a.m., Dale Stauffer, superintendent; Page worship service at 11 a.m.; Page MYF at 8 p.m., followed by choir practice.

Thursday, June 17: Page W.S.C.S. meeting at 2:30 p.m. We welcome you!

METHODIST (Emmett)
Rev. W. B. Smith, pastor
Sunday is student day at your church. The sermon title is "Inner Word." A special offering will be received for the student loan and student scholarship fund. Make it possible for some young person to go to college by being generous.

Youth camp for seniors, young people who will be in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades next fall, begins Sunday, June 20, at Ponca state park. Young people who plan to be present for camp should register with their pastor immediately. Intermediate camp begins June 26. Let's send a big delegation to camp.

Gideons Plan Banquet Rally

The Gideon society will hold a combination banquet and rally at the Town House at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, June 12. Karl Kasten of St. Ann, state Gideon president, will be the speaker. A number of churches have made available Gideon assignments at services Sunday, June 13. A spokesman for the O'Neill camp said the Gideons "greatly appreciate this response and fine interest in this ministry."

A basket dinner is planned at the Wesleyan Methodist church basement on Sunday, followed by a fellowship meeting. The Gideons have been converging at O'Neill each year for a rally.

COMMUNITY (Stuart)
Rev. D. D. Su, pastor
Sunday, June 13: Lesson study, 10 a.m.; worship service, 11 a.m.

There will be a joint meeting of the elders and trustees tonight (Thursday), 8 o'clock. Vacation Bible school closes Friday, June 4, and the children presented a program of songs, Bible verses and a playlet on Sunday, June 6, at 11 a.m. Mrs. Donald Krotter was superintendent of the school with Mrs. Alvin Lofquest assistant. Eighty-one children were enrolled under the following teachers and assistants:

Kindergarten class—Miss Jane Henderson and Miss Marilyn Peterson.

Primary A—Misses Twila Smith and Leola Clements.

Primary B—Mrs. Ray Greenfield and Misses Loretta Papke and Shirley Ready.

The women's circles will meet on June 17.

Daily vacation Bible school closes on Friday, and the program and exhibit will be held at the church at 8 p.m., Friday. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Letters to Editor

June 2, 1954
Dear Publisher:
Received your notice that my subscription had expired. I am enclosing payment for one year at servicemen's rate.

I have received your paper for some time and enjoy it very much.

RONALD C. BOELTER
Very truly yours,
A/3c Ronald C. Boelter, AF-17354918, box 10, 5039th transportation sqd., APO 942 c/o P.M., Seattle, Wash.

Wayne, Nebr.
Dear Editor:
We are sending a check for the renewal of The Frontier.

Since we moved away from O'Neill, your paper means more to us than when we lived there. You have a good paper and we appreciate your fairness and the work you know it takes.

Sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. ROBERT LAMB

Miss DeHart Is Feted at Shower
CHAMBERS—About 82 friends and relatives gathered at the Methodist church parlors on Thursday evening, June 3, for a miscellaneous shower, honoring Miss Ada DeHart.

Mrs. E. A. Farrier and Mrs. L. W. Taggart were in charge of arrangements. A program of songs, games and contests was presented by several of her classmates and some of her pupils. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the ladies of the Woman's society of the church.

DeHart's marriage to Earl Thies of Winside will take place today (Thursday).

WE BEG YOUR PARDON

EWING—Mrs. Wilson Spangler and daughter, Laura Kay, born May 18, were the honored guests at the baby shower held May 27 at the annex of the United Presbyterian church, instead of Mrs. Wilbur Spangler, as stated in last week's Frontier.
