

Mary Lois Kelly, Gerald Austin Wed in Church Rite

Before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and bouquets of daisies and peonies, Miss Mary Lois Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly of O'Neill, and Gerald Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Austin of Plainview, were united in marriage on Wednesday, June 9. It was a 1 o'clock ceremony. Very Rev. Timothy M. O'Sullivan, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church, officiated at the double-ring rite. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bouffant waltz-length gown with a fitted bodice and elbow-length sleeves of white eyelet embroidered organza over satin. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Her maid-of-honor, Miss Lou Anne Fritton, wore a waltz-length gown of lavender organza and carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies. Her fitted crown hat was of lavender tulle and was edged with minute lavender forget-me-nots.

The flowergirls, the Misses Barbara Spittler and Ann Wolfe, a niece and cousin of the bride, respectively, wore gowns of yellow and pale green organza with matching bandeaux.

Leland Alexander of Plainview was bestman for his brother-in-law and J. Spittler and William Kelly ushered.

Miss Bernadette Hynes was soloist. She sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day," accompanied by Mrs. Gene Wolfe, organist, and cousin of the bride.

A reception was held at the Town House from 2 until 4 o'clock following the ceremony. For traveling, the bride wore a pink linen dress with a navy linen jacket and white accessories. After a wedding trip to the Black Hills the couple will live at Ft. McClellan, Ala., where the bridegroom will be stationed with the army.

Mrs. Austin is a 1951 graduate from St. Mary's academy and attended St. Catherine's school of nursing in Omaha for two years. Until recently she was employed at St. Anthony's hospital. Private Austin was graduated from Plainview high school in 1949 and before entering the army in March, 1954, he was employed as a bookkeeper in Sioux City for Armour and Co.

Rehearsal Party—

Religious Classes Underway at Ewing

EWING—The annual religious summer school got underway at St. Peter's Catholic church on Monday, May 31. Seventy-one grade school children are enrolled. Three nuns from St. Mary's academy in O'Neill, Sisters Antonella, Flores and Emilie, are the instructors, assisted by two girls of the parish, Judy Jeffries and Sandra Dierks.

Twelve 7-year-olds are being prepared for their first holy communion, by Sister Antonella, principal of St. Mary's. They are Michael Bealart, Gene Bollwitt, Leroy Bollwitt, Garry Hertel, James Kropp, William Lofquest, Suzanne Rosno, Rita Rotherham, Michael Sanders, Julian Sojka, Catherine Wanser and Richard Wanser.

Four younger boys and girls, who will lead the first communion group, are Daniel Bauer, Richard Kropp, Joan Vander-snick and Jeanette Woslager.

The summer period is for two weeks. It climaxes nine months of weekly instruction in religion. The children are instructed each Saturday afternoon throughout the school year by Rev. Peter Burke, pastor, and two lay women, Mrs. Leonard Knapp and Miss Frances Rotherham. Catechism, Bible history and practice in the application of religious principles are stressed in the summer session.

Sister Flores, head of the music department at St. Mary's, is stressing devotion to the Blessed Mother in keeping with the year of Mary. The projector operated by Sister Emilie has proven popular.

Sunday, June 13, will bring the instruction period to a close with 7:30 o'clock mass. It will be first communion Sunday and general communion day for the older children.
