

Ada DeHart Weds
Earl Thies in Church Nuptials

CHAMBERS—Miss Ada De Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar DeHart of Chambers, became the bride of Earl Thies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Thies of Winside, at a ceremony at the Methodist church in Chambers on Thursday, June 10.

The altar was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladiolus and two white seven-candle candelabra. There were white carnations and gladiolus on the piano.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 2 p.m., by Rev. L. R. Hansberry, church pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and net over satin. The bodice was fashioned with a sweet-heart neckline and full length sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. The full-length skirt had an accordion pleated flounce of net. She wore a fingertip veil held in place by a white lace and satin cap and she carried a bouquet of pink roses with a removable corsage. The tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue was carried out.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Shirley DeHart, sister of the bride, wore a gown of blue lace over taffeta bodice with matching bolero. The full-length skirt was of net over taffeta. She wore matching lace wrist mitts and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Maxine Thies, sister of the bridegroom, wore a pink lace over taffeta gown. She wore matching lace wrist mitts and a corsage of blue carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by his cousins, Gilbert Mattes and Robert Thies, both of Wayne.

Marvin Doolittle of Amelia, cousin of the bride, and Edward Thies of Winside, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ushers. Miss Vivian Harley, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. C. V. Robertson of Chambers was pianist. Several pre-nuptial selections were played. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March."

Following the ceremony, a reception for about one hundred guests was served in the church parlors. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake, bowls of flowers and candles with tall baskets of pink and white gladiolus in front. Ice cream and cake in pink, white and blue and coffee were served by several members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, assisted by four girls, the Misses Mary Ellen Gillette, Jennie Halsey, Carolyn Wintermote and Edyth Grimes.

Mrs. Zane Rowe, friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. James Butts and Mrs. Vernon Schmidt were in charge of gifts.

Mrs. Thies graduated from the Chambers high school. She attended Wayne State teachers college and taught three years in the rural schools of Holt county.

Mr. Thies attended the Winside high school and served in the army for two years, 18 months of which were spent overseas.

They will make their home on a farm four miles east of Winside.

Dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Page at Page were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wetzler and family, Mrs. Mary Wetzler, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Worth and Mr. Orville Miller and family. The occasion honored the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Page.

Victory Club Plans Card Party—The Victory Homemakers club held its June meeting with Mrs. Ray Conway. Fifteen of the 18 members answered roll call with a birthday card in a shower for Mrs. G. D. Janzing.

Mrs. Jim Earley was a guest. We had a mystery auction. The club will have a card party on Sunday, June 27, in the Church of Epiphany basement. The proceeds will go for a window in the church. Everyone is invited.

Next meeting will be an afternoon session at the home of Mrs. Jack Janzing on July 14.—By Mrs. Ray Timmerman, reporter.
