

Mrs. Harold Robert Bishop, nee Helen Ruth Kubitschek . . . becomes bride in church rite at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. (Story at right.)—O'Neill Photo Co.

Helen Kubitschek Becomes Bride of Harold R. Bishop

Miss Helen Ruth Kubitschek, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Kubitschek, and Harold Robert Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop of New York, N.Y., were united in marriage at an 11 o'clock ceremony at St. Patrick's Catholic church on Saturday, June 26. The Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the single-ring rite.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of bridal satin with a fitted chantilly lace bodice and a bouffant skirt with lace inserts that fell into a cathedral train. Her princess style veil fell from a tudor pearl-trimmed half-hat. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Richard M. Bogan of Kansas City, Mo., was matron-of-honor for her sister. The other attendants were Mrs. Paul R. Kubitschek of Tremont, Ill., Mrs. Richard L. Owens of Kansas City, Mo., and Miss Arlene Anson of Detroit, Mich. The attendants were gowned in princess styled dresses of sheer shantung over taffeta in shrimp pink, orchid, daffodil yellow and dior blue. They carried colonial bouquets of painted daisies tied with ribbons to match their dresses.

Miss Patti Kubitschek of Denver, Colo., niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a dress of spring green and carried a colonial bouquet of daisies.

Frank Eugene Bishop, jr., of New York, N.Y., was bestman for his brother and the ushers were Richard M. Bogan of Kansas City, Mo., Dr. Paul R. Kubitschek of Tremont, Ill., and John Collins, jr., of New York City.

Miss Marde Birmingham sang

"Ave Maria" and Miss Nancy Beha sang "Panis Angelicus." The two sang "On This Day" as a duet. Mrs. Gene Wolfe was the organist.

The altar of the church was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and the pews tied with satin bows and daisies.

Following the wedding ceremony a breakfast for 150 guests was given at the Town House. Assisting at the breakfast were Messdames H. J. Birmingham, F. N. Cronin, Edward M. Gallagher, W. H. Harty, H. J. Lohaus, C. J. Gatz and P. B. Harty. Miss Frances Rotherham of Ewing was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Bishop is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and Barat college, Lake Forest, Ill. Mr. Bishop graduated from Jamaica high school, Jamaica, N.Y., and the University of Detroit. He is employed with the Luminous company as a chemical engineer in New York City.

For traveling the bride wore a sheath styled dress of grey linen and broadcloth with white accessories. The couple will reside in New York.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding and reception were: Dr. and Mrs. William R. Kubitschek of Denver, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, jr., of New York, N.Y., Carlos Baranano of Havana, Cuba, Mrs. May Renaud of Bridgeport, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, jr., of New York, N.Y., Lester Hyde of Detroit, Mich., Miss Rhoda Roberts of Huntington Woods, Mich., Miss Mary Ertel of Detroit, Mich., Miss Helen Van Sant of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. Robert Berigan of St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. James Ordeski of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Esther Kinnier of Spalding.
