64 Attend Meeting at Ewing

EWING—Sixty-four members of the American Legion and auxiliary from Atkinson, Page, O'Neill and Ewing were in attendance at a district meeting held at the auditorium of the Ewing public school last Thursday evening.

Sanders post 214 presented the colors. Commander Ralph Munn introduced Mrs. Lewis Carter, president of the American Legion auxiliary of unit 214. She had charge of the following program:

Larry Williamson played his guitar accompaniment and sang "You Just Better Not Do That" and "I Get So Lonely." A report on Cornhusker girls' state was given by Diana Baum, who represented Ewing this year sponsored by the auxiliary. A reading, "How I Learned to Play the Piano," featuring "Three Blind Mice," also was presented by Miss Baum.

Miss Vlanda Biddlecome staged a pantomime solo, "I Des Dotta Doe." District Vice-Commander Charles Chace, introduced ed by Commander Munn, told of the progress of the county Legion and auxiliary. Ewing is one of the six units.

The next district meeting is being planned in September at Plainview—the date to be set. District Commander Jerome Henn of Petersburg told of the program planned for the department convention, which will be held in Omaha August 1, 2 and 3. He also mentioned this as being his 52nd appearance at district meetings since becoming district commander.

Holt county has reached its membership goal for this year.

On retirement of colors, the group adjourned to the Legion club where auxiliary members of unit 214 had prepared a buffet luncheon of barbecue sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, coffee and iced tea.

Rural Topic at WSCS Meeting

EWING—"Women and the Rural Community" was the topic of the lesson for the Women's Society of Christian Service when the group met Wednesday afternoon at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church. Mrs. Anna Pollock was the leader. The session was opened by Miss Anna Van Zandt with a poem "Peace". The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Earl Billings.

Mrs. R. G. Rockey presided at the short business meeting, consisting of routine affairs.

Guests were Mrs. Ed. Urban, Mrs. Lee Bridon and son, Miss Iris Van Ostrand. Hostesses were Mrs. Jessi Angus and Mrs. Sie Ebengaard. Refreshments were served. Bouquets of garden flowers decorated the table and the dining room.

Karen Tuttle Feted

EWING—Karen Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tuttle, celebrated her 13th birthday anniversary on Thursday, July 8. In honor of the occasion, several boys and girls were invited to an afternoon party. Outdoor games were played. Gifts were also presented to Karen. Two birthday cakes baked and decorated by her mother were served with ice cream and coolade for refreshments.

Birthday Cake Resembles Train
