surfacing extending southward from the junction of U.S. highway 281 and state highway 12 in Boyd county.

The state highway department at present is processing plans for six miles of hard-surfacing north from the Clarence Donohoe corner (where the new mat now terminates).

The oil mat equipment operated by Francis R. Orcheck & Company of Fremont is now working south of Bassett on a 19-mile section, laying oil mat at the rate of about one mile per day under normal conditions. The Orcheck firm has the contract for four miles of new construction on U.S. highway 281, between a point 14 miles south of O'Neill and the Chambers junction; also five miles west from the junction to the west edge of Chambers.

District Engineer J. M. Crook said Wednesday he expected the oil mat machine to be moved into the Chambers vicinity by "about September 1."

Redbird News

The Redbird Lucky Clover 4-H club met Friday with Janet and Eddie Krugman.

FOR THOSE pesky ants, use ANTROL. BLACKFLAG DUST. For outside use we have CHLORADANE 6% DUST.

THE LATEST TUNE going the rounds among the fly population is: "I'll Never Fly Again!" Why? Because of FLY FLAKES, one of the most potent killers on the market. Ready to use . . . no mixing.

FOR THOSE dairy cattle, a combination of Lindane and Methoxychlor . . . can't be beat for the control of flies.
