Kellar Group Learns About Composer

CHAMBERS—The Kellar Ladies' club met Wednesday, July 28, at the home of Mrs. Alfred Maas. Mrs. Orville Svatos was assistant hostess. Thirteen members and one child were present.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Ernest Farrier, who played several piano numbers and gave a number of interesting facts about Carrie Jacobs Bond, whose song, "Perfect Day," prefaced the program. Mrs. Louis Neilson read two selections from the book, "Poems by Nebraska Poets," and one from Zondervan's "Christmas Program Hand Book No. 2." Mrs. Orville Svatos won the door prize.

Because everyone is so busy it was decided to omit the August 31 meeting. The program committee for the next meeting is Myrtle Bell, Anna Alderson and Ruth Harley. The place and date will be announced later.
