Miss Vandernick Becomes Bride in Church Ceremony

EWING—Seasonal flowers decorated the altar of St. Peter's Catholic church on Sunday, August 15, for the 2:30 p.m., wedding of Miss Patricia Joanne Vandernick and Mick L. Hobbs. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vandernick; the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hobbs, all of Ewing.

Rev. P. F. Burke, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The church choir with Miss Diana Baum at the organ sang "On This Day, Beautiful Mother" and "Panic Angelicus."

The bride wore a gown with a fitted bodice with a stand-up collar. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrist. The full skirt was of applied lace on nylon net over white satin. Her fingertip veil of nylon net edged with lace was held by a tier of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white satin streamers. Her only jewels were a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Winnie Vandernick, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Her gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations with green satin streamers.

Marilyn Weyhrich was bridesmaid. Her gown was of green rayon net over satin. She carried a colonial bouquet of orchid carnations with green satin streamers.

Nancy Lee Turay, niece of the bridegroom, was flowergirl, and Vincent Vandernick, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Phylis Thiele, cousin of the bride, was the groomsmen. He was attired in a grey suit. The bridegroom and his brother, Dorence, as bestman both wore light navy suits. The ushers were Lewis Vandernick and Joe John Thoendel. Each wore a white carnation boutonniere.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow carnations. A pink and grey nylon dress was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Pink carnations made up her corsage.

The grandmothers of the bridegroom, Mrs. Rose Harding of O'Neill and Mrs. Peter Roudyush of Ewing, appeared in rose bengal sheer and a bemberg sheer print, respectively. Mrs. Harding's corsage was of white carnations, Mrs. Roudyush's of yellow carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Legion club with over one hundred guests in attendance. The three-tier wedding cake decorated in the bride's chosen colors of yellow and green was made by Mrs. Victor Vandernick and Mrs. Carl Thiele. Other ladies assisting at the reception were Mrs. Joe Thoedel and Mrs. Garrett Kallhoff. Waitresses were Frances Noffke, Patsy Pollock, Sharon Rotherham, Maxine Noffke and Lila Weppel.

After a wedding trip through the Black Hills, the young couple will make their home on the Hobbs ranch southwest of Ewing.

Bermuda Trip for Floyd Sagesers

AMELIA—Miss Marilyn Joan Markham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Markham of Pittsburg, Kans., and Floyd Eugene Sageser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern C. Sageser of Amelia, exchanged marriage vows at 4 o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, August 7. Dr. William T. Hall read the single-ring service in the chancel of the First Methodist church in Pittsburg.

White asters filled the vases on the altar. Tall baskets of white gladioli and asters, palms and lighted cathedral tapers in brass floor candelabra flanked the altar. The organist, Mrs. Robert L. Pate, played prior to the ceremony "Andante Cantabile," "Romance," "Serenade," "When Thou Art Near," "Song Without Words" and "Thou Art Lovely As a Flower." She also accompanied Mrs. Fred Holden, who sang "Before You Came" and "I Love Thee."

Mr. Markham gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's gown was of imported chantilly lace over French faille taffeta. The basque type bodice was fashioned with a boat neckline edged with scalloped tulle and trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. The short scalloped sleeves were complemented with a matching lace cloche edged with braided tulle and tiny seed pearls. She carried the white Delta Delta Delta prayer book topped with an orchid. Her only ornament was a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Clyde C. Templeman, jr., was matron-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Molly Weathers and Miss Clara Jane Lutz. Their gowns were alike and were of ice blue crystallite taffeta designed with a deep "V" neckline with a wide double collar. They wore matching coronets of braided horse hair scattered with rhinestones, and carried colonial bouquets.

Miss Sandra Sageser, cousin of the bridegroom, was the flower-girl, and Richard Sanford, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Thomas Leathers served as bestman. Ushers were Sanford Markham, brother of the bride, Verne Converse and Arthur Hillbrand.

Mrs. Markham wore an afternoon gown of wedgewood blue chiffon over taffeta and Mrs. Sageser chose a beige lace over pale rose nylon. Both wore corsages of asters.

A reception honoring the couple was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride's table featured the four-tier wedding cake topped with white miniature wedding bells and encircled with green ivy.

Tall silver branch candelabra held white tapers and silver platters were used to serve green and white mints.

Miss Martha Ottinger, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guestbook at the reception.

The bride wore a champagne linen suit with chocolate color accessories as the couple left for a wedding trip to New York and Bermuda. They will be home after August 29 in Kansas City, Mo.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sageser, his grandmother, Mrs. Link Sageser of Amelia, and Dr. and Mrs. Bower Sageser and daughter, Sandra, of Manhattan, Kans.

It Happened In NEBRASKA---

In 1861, Nebraskans witnessed a "fast" new stagecoach service — from Missouri to the West Coast in 38 days! Frequently, a cavalry escort guarded the stagecoach as it passed through Indian country. Many stage "stations" which provided rest for the passengers later developed into thriving communities.

More recently, Nebraskans have witnessed a change in the public attitude toward the tavern industry. Modern-day taverns are as wholesome and well-regulated as any business. An accepted part of community living!
