

Ewing Music Post Not Yet Filled

Students to Register August 30

EWING — The Ewing public school will open Monday, August 30. Students will register between 9 and 12 in the morning. During the afternoon a short period will be devoted to the study of the schedule and text books will be given the students. School will also be in session on labor day, September 6, as has been the custom.

Those on the high school faculty are: Supt. L. M. Carter; Miss Lena Baker of Neligh, high school principal; Miss Elsie Chase, commercial; Mrs. Amber Schlotman, English and dramatics; Miss Fern Pruden, vocational homemaker; Richard Lane, athletics and shop.

An announcement will be made

Dr. Edw. J. Norwood, O.D. Optometrist, from Crawford, Nebraska, will be in O'Neill on FRIDAY, SEPT. 3 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. At the Hotel Golden Glasses Properly Fitted Eyes Scientifically Examined at a later date pertaining to the music department.

The grade faculty includes: Mrs. Helen Grim, who will be grade principal and also will have charge of the kindergarten and first grade; Miss Donna Carson, first and second; Mrs. Leona Beckwith Ruggles, third and fourth; Miss Margaret Catron, fifth and sixth; Mrs. Beulah Black, seventh and eighth.

Thirteen lettermen have reported for football. Suits were issued on Saturday, August 21, and practice began on Monday, August 23. The first game will be with Bassett at Bassett, the date to be announced. There will be five home games during the season.

N. A. Bergstrom, custodian, has been busy during the summer months and several improvements have been made.

India Slides Shown at McKim Reunion

Thirty-four of the 97 McKim descendants met at the Neligh park on Sunday, August 15, for their eighth annual family reunion. A picnic dinner was enjoyed at noon. Letters were read from two of the members—G. A. McKim and Anabel (McKim) Shoemaker—who were unable to be present.

The group went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hemenway where colored slides were shown by Dr. and Mrs. V. C. McKim. The photos were taken during the past year while they were in India teaching and lecturing.

Four births, one marriage and one death were recorded for the past year.

It was voted to hold the next reunion on Sunday, July 3, 1955, at Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parkins spent the weekend in Omaha.

Chitwood Drivers to Appear, Neligh

Thrill Troupe Back from Europe

NELIGH — The gates of the 40th annual Antelope county fair swing open at Riverside park this weekend with a three-day program that, according to Frank Morrison, president of the fair association, "exceeds any program heretofore offered in the way of entertainment."

Billed as the "greatest thrill show on earth" and only recently returned from a successful tour of Europe, is the Chitwood daredevil tournament of thrills, which will be a feature of the Sunday, August 29, program. This feature will entertain fair patrons in two complete performances, two hours each, afternoon and evening. Among Chitwood's stellar performers are Hal Kent and Al Gross, who balance an automobile at fast speed onto a ramp and then on one and two wheels—a feat which not more than a dozen men in the United States have ever mastered. Known among daredevils as high sides or high skis, this stunt raises and requires more skill and experience than the spectacular crashes and deliberate crash roll overs.

The stock car races Friday and Saturday, August 27 and 28, on the first two afternoons of the fair, promise no end of thrills. More than 30 drivers will vie for purses in a spectacular program around the half-mile dirt track at Riverside park.

Horse racing is another big feature of the Friday and Saturday afternoon programs and many entries have already been received.

Friday night the colorful Boy Scout pageant, 4-H club skits, together with the J. C. Michaels attractions, will provide the entertainment. A word about the Michaels performers must include Joe and Bebe Sincrist, America's most sensational and daring aerial thrillers. Performing on the towering steel aerial rigging 100 feet in midair without the protection of a net, this famous team presents a breath-taking performance. Joe Sincrist executes a complete back somersault, feet-to-feet from one platform to another 100 feet above the crowd, a suicide trick he originated and the most sensational in the show business. You will see him and thrill at his skill and his courage each afternoon and evening of the fair.

The Antelope County Saddle club, Nebraska state champions, will put on a two-hour show Saturday night. A new feature this year, a cow-cutting contest, will be on the Saturday night program with the 4-H livestock parade, free acts and other features.

The Clearwater band, directed by Leonard R. Sawyer, plays Saturday afternoon and the Neligh band, directed by Ray Sage, Sunday afternoon.

A calf scramble, supervised by John Donnor, is a Sunday night feature for the first time this year.

The Marion Carnival company will be on hand during the fair with rides and concessions.

Many improvements have been made at the fairgrounds since last year. A new hog exhibit barn 24x60 feet, and a new well and rest room facilities have been added on the livestock area across the bridge.
