

Mrs. Thomas Blake . . . August bride in church ceremony.

 Fritton-Blake Nuptials Read

Miss Marilyn Ellen Fritton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fritton of O'Neill, and Thomas J. Blake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Blake, also of O'Neill, were united in marriage Wednesday, August 25, at St. Patrick's Catholic church here. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the 9 o'clock double-ring rite. The date chosen by the bride was the wedding anniversary of her parents.

The altar was banked with gladioli of blue and white, the bride's colors. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon lace over satin. The skirt with front inserts of tulle fell into a chapel train. The basque bodice featured a scalloped portrait neckline. A seed pearl studded Juliet cap of lace and nylon held her waist-length veil of illusion net. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Luanne Fritton was maid-of-honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina-length gown of pale blue with a strapless bodice, matching jacket and head-dress. She carried a bouquet of blue and white feathered carnations. The bridesmaids, the Misses Nancy Bellinghieri of Omaha, Patricia Peler of Omaha, Margaret Judge of O'Neill and Mary Jurgensmeier of O'Neill, wore dresses styled similar to that of the maid-of-honor, although in a deeper shade of blue. They carried bouquets of blue and white feathered carnations.

The bridegroom and his best-man, Estel Thomas, and the ushers, Quentin Cavanaugh, Al Hamik, Max Mossman and Jerome Gallagher, were attired in navy trousers, white dinner jackets and navy ties. They wore blue carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Marde Birmingham, vocal soloist, sang "On This Day" and "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Gene Wolfe, organist.

Michael Troshynski and Bobby Murphy, cousins of the bride, served as altar boys.

The bride's mother chose a two-piece dress of mink colored lace with white accessories. Mrs. Blake wore a beige lace dress with black accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony a breakfast for the wedding party and immediate families was served at the Town House.

A reception was held at the American Legion auditorium from 2 until 4 in the afternoon. The bride's table was covered with a white lace tablecloth with a blue undercloth. A three-tier wedding cake centered the table decorated with candelabra of blue and white and white gladioli. Coffee, cake, punch and ice cream were served to the guests.

Ray Bohn was in charge of the punch bowl, Mrs. Ronald Borg and Mrs. Marlin Wichman poured. Mrs. Max Mossman and Mrs. Al Hamik were in charge of the guest book.

The couple departed on a wedding trip to the West coast following a dance at the Legion auditorium that evening. For traveling, the bride chose a pink linen dress with white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Blake was graduated from St. Mary's academy in O'Neill and St. Catherine's school of nursing in Omaha. Mr. Blake was graduated from the Inman high school and attended the University of Nebraska college of agriculture at Lincoln.

Dinner Follows Rehearsal—
A dinner for the wedding party of the former Miss Marilyn Ellen Fritton and Thomas Blake was given at the Town House Tuesday evening following the wedding rehearsal at St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tobin were guests Wednesday, August 18, and last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McElvain.
