Knights Present $500 to Hammond

Herbert J. Hammond (center) was honored last Thursday evening by members of Charles Carroll of Carrollton council, Knights of Columbus. Mr. Hammond recently retired after serving 44 years as financial secretary for the group. He is shown receiving congratulations from Francis Gilg, Lyle Benda, Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan and Rev. Thomas Hitch. The job of financial secretary entails considerable detail work in connection with the K of C fraternal insurance and Mr. Hammond was presented with a five hundred dollar cash gift in appreciation for his long period of service during which he never accepted pay. He has been a member of the council 47 years. Of the 65 KC's at the affair, 23 had been members for 30 years or more and 11 had been members over 40 years.—Frontier Photo by John H. McCarville.
