Deritha Smith, Kenneth L. Moore Wed at Inman

INMAN — The Methodist church was the scene Friday evening, August 27, of the 7 o'clock ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Deritha Elaine Smith, daughter of Kenneth F. Smith and the late Mrs. Smith, and Kenneth LeRoy Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore. Rev. L. E. Mewmaw, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with lavender and white gladioli, the bride's chosen colors.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of white puckered nylon and a matching cap held her fingertip veil of nylon net. She carried a bridal bouquet of pale pink carnations and a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a double-strand of pearls and matching earrings. She also wore the traditional something old, something new.

Miss Yvonne Smith, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pale lavender floor-length gown of eyelet embroidered organdy and a white head-dress. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow baby mums and white chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom and his best man, Gordon Sholes, and the usher, Max Mossman, wore business suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Marye Hartigan furnished the nuptial music. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece fall dress in delicate blue with black accessories. She also wore a white carnation corsage.

A reception for over one hundred guests was held at the Maxey Memorial addition. The bride's table was decorated with a lace tablecloth, centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with wedding bells. The cake was baked by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Melvin Smith of Page. Vases of white and lavender gladioli also decorated the table. Additional angel food cakes were also baked by three aunts of the bride — Mrs. James Coventry, Mrs. Kenneth Coventry and Mrs. James M. McMahon.

Others were baked by Mrs. Howard Jackson and Miss Faye Brunkhorst.

The Misses Barbara Brunkhorst, Arlene Ruroede and Mary Frances Vitt, the later two from O'Neill, poured. Mrs. Howard Jackson, Mrs. Clarence Hansen and Miss Faye Brunkhorst served. Miss Helen Engler of O'Neill had charge of the guest-book and giftbook.

Following the reception the couple opened the gifts. They left for the Black Hills on a short wedding trip.

The bride and bridegroom both were graduated from the Inman high school with the class of 1950. Mr. Moore attended the Norfolk College of Business and is now employed in the office of Gas Co. at O'Neill. Mr. Moore is the Kansas - Nebraska Natural Bell Telephone company.

After September 15 they will be at home in the Klingler apartments in O'Neill.
