Loss of Osborne Blow to Wayne '11'

WAYNE — Severest blow to this year's Wayne State Teachers college grid team is the loss of John Osborne, Atkinson heavyweight, who has gone into military service, and Tom Hultquist of Oakland, who is not returning to school. Both are veteran tackles.

Among the 13 lettermen returning is Dick Petersen of Elgin. Bidding for berths are Lyle Davis former O'Neill high all-Holt county lineman, and William Passich of Niobrara.

The Wildcats open against Augustana college of Sioux Falls, S.D., Saturday, September 11, at Sioux Falls.

Two-Platoons to Be Employed

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals are grinding out their third week of six-man grid rehearsals with emphasis during the past week on the two-platoon system.

Coach Don Templemeyer has 24 candidates reporting for duty, most of them inexperienced, young and green. Consequently, he feels the two-platoon idea will enable the maximum number to gain experience. Templemeyer doesn't expect to set the world on fire, what with so few trained hands, so he has begun a strategic rebuilding job.

Terry Wanser, veteran backfielder, has been elected captain for the season.

The Cardinals open the season Friday night at North Loup. Roster:

Promising material working under Miller and Assistant Football Coach Elmer Murman are Vernon Passieux, Bill Davison, Roger Niemeyer, Jim Johnson, Bob Burival, Skip McKenny, Russell Thomas, Jim Reynolds and Harold Petersen.

The Eagles are members of the North-Central conference, which includes Ainsworth, Valentine, Atkinson, Bassett, Stuart and Springfield.

Golden, Mrs. Grady Holiday Winners

Members of the Country club took part in a breakfast Monday morning and then devoted the balance of the holiday to the annual labor day two-ball mixed foursome golf tournament.

Winners were M. J. Golden and Mrs. J. B. Grady with a score of 42. The week before Golden had annexed the individual city golf title — an accomplishment that has become a habit. By coincidence, Mrs. Grady's husband was Golden's rival in the championship match in the city tournament held earlier.

Runnersup in Monday's affair were A. P. Jaskowski and Mrs. Edna Devereux of Omaha, who turned in a 45. Consolation honors went to Miss Nyla Jaskowski and D. E. Nelson.

During the afternoon the male golfers participated in a sweepstakes match. A team composed of Ed Campbell, Dr. H. D. Gildersleeve and A. P. Jaskowski finished best with a card of 121. The runnerup team included Grady, Bill Watson and John Conard who finished with 125.

Golden, Mrs. Grady Holiday Winners

Members of the Country club took part in a breakfast Monday morning and then devoted the balance of the holiday to the annual labor day two-ball mixed foursome golf tournament.

Winners were M. J. Golden and Mrs. J. B. Grady with a score of 42. The week before Golden had annexed the individual city golf title — an accomplishment that has become a habit. By coincidence, Mrs. Grady's husband was Golden's rival in the championship match in the city tournament held earlier.

Runnersup in Monday's affair were A. P. Jaskowski and Mrs. Edna Devereux of Omaha, who turned in a 45. Consolation honors went to Miss Nyla Jaskowski and D. E. Nelson.

During the afternoon the male golfers participated in a sweepstakes match. A team composed of Ed Campbell, Dr. H. D. Gildersleeve and A. P. Jaskowski finished best with a card of 121. The runnerup team included Grady, Bill Watson and John Conard who finished with 125.
