

Cpl. Timmermans
Formerly of Stuart, Takes a Bride

STUART—Miss Eloise Esther Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin W. Jackson of Fairmont, was married to Cpl. William Joseph Timmermans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Timmermans of Sutton, formerly of Stuart, in a double-ring ceremony held August 4 at St. Helena's Catholic church at Grafton.

Rev. Thomas Kadlec witnessed the service. The servers were Pat Miller and Dick Timmermans, brother of the bridegroom.

For the occasion, the church pews were marked with white satin bows. The high altar and stations were decorated with gladon bouquets. Mrs. J. R. Walters played the organ, accompanying Joan Leininger, who sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother."

Shirley Jackson of Lincoln, a cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length gown of orchid lace with matching head-piece, and carried a bouquet of shell pink asters. Another cousin of the bride, Teresa Jackson of Hastings was the flower-girl. Her floor-length gown was of pink taffeta. She wore a flowered head-piece and carried a bouquet of pink baby roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown fashioned of imported French hand-clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The sculptured lace basque bodice featured a folded tulle fichu beneath the curved neckline and long fitted sleeves. An extremely bouffant tulle skirt was triply banded with lace and mantled with the same both front and back, continuing into a train at the back.

Her veil was formed of a chantilly lace half-cap embroidered with iridescent sequins and outlined with seed pearls, with a fingertip double veil of imported silk bridal illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a powder blue lace dress with pink accessories. She also wore a corsage of gladioli. The mother of the bridegroom wore an ice blue nylon dress with white accessories and her corsage was also of gladioli.

LaVerne Timmermans, brother of the bridegroom, was the bestman. Larry Timmermans and Leo Leininger, both of Sutton, served as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement. Gladioli decorated the table on which the three-tier wedding cake sat. Assisting in the reception were Mrs. Olive McAvoy, who poured the coffee; Mrs. Merle Porter, who poured the punch; Mrs. Arthur Funk of Omaha, in charge of the guest-book, and Mrs. Gene Leininger, in charge of the gifts. Also helping were: Mrs. Ralph O'Connor, Mrs. Paul O'Connor, Mrs. Frank Rolles, Charlotte Funk, Mrs. Raymond Peterson, Donna Galuska and Loraine Galuska.

The bride graduated from the Fairmont high school and has been employed for the past 2½ years at the General State bank. The bridegroom is currently serving in the army, where he is stationed at Ft. Riley, Kans.

For her wedding trip to the Black Hills, the bride wore a white nylon dress with a sweet-heart neckline and trimmed with yellow. Her accessories were white.

The couple is now at home in Manhattan, Kans.

Oleson Aids Championship Team

DORSEY—An army trouble shooter who did not fire a weapon but whose presence proved to be a vital factor in the outcome of the International Prix Le Clerc marksmanship tourney in Holland, is among members of the second infantry regiment champion small arms team which won the right to represent the United States.

This man is Pfc. Vernon C. Oleson of company A, 705th ordnance battalion, which is at present attached to the second infantry regiment.

He accompanied the team with his box of spare parts as the small arms repair man. Should anything go wrong with any of the weapons, it was his job to repair the weapon at a moment's notice so the marksman could continue his blasting.

Oleson, who can assemble and disassemble the M-1, pistol and automatic rifle blindfolded and at a high rate of speed, has handled weapons all his life.

He states, "I used a .22 rifle and a 12-gauge shotgun at home. Wild pheasants and geese wandered right into our back yard, and if I wanted to hunt squirrels I just had to go about five miles into the woods."

Helping his father with his well-drilling machinery and tinkering with his car gave Oleson the necessary mechanical ability to handle the job which he was required to do.

at Dorsey, took his 16 weeks basic training at Ft. Riley, Kans., and then took 17 weeks of advanced training at the NCO school at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Oleson arrived overseas in January of this year, and was assigned to the 705th ordnance battalion as a small arms repair man.

Since May 3 he has been working on the weapons of the second infantry regiment Le Clerc team which recently beat the Berlin command and V corps teams in a playoff match, thus winning the right to represent the United States in the international match in Holland. The United States won top honors in this match.

Vernon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oleson of Geddes, S.D. His wife, the former Mary Lucille Osborn, and their son, Neil Thomas, are living near Dorsey with her folks, the Harold Osborns.

FORD'S THE LEADER

(and looks it!)

In fine-car feature after feature, Ford's far out front in its field. Only Ford gives you styling that will stay in style . . . new Ball-Joint ride and handling . . . high-spirited V-8 "Go"

It's no wonder so many people are swinging over to Ford! Ford offers more fine-car features than any other low-priced car.

You can see Ford's the leader in "looks." With its long, low, clean-cut lines, Ford's the acknowledged trend-setter in the industry. And Ford has interior luxury to match, with the latest in modern fabrics . . . the handsomest in trim.

And Ford acts the leader, too. Riding and handling are always smoother, easier because of Ford's revolutionary Ball-Joint Front Suspension (exclusive to Ford in the low-price field) that cushions the bumps of even the roughest roads and helps keep that new-car "feel" far longer.

And with Ford's many, many other fine-car features such as suspended clutch and brake pedals, Center-Fill Fueling and the new Astra-Dial Control Panel, Ford is worth more when you sell. It's a proven fact that Ford returns more of its original cost, at resale, than any other car in the low-price field! Come in . . . Test Drive a Ford today, and see why.

Ford is the only car in its field with a V-8 engine, the 130-h.p. Y-block V-8. And Ford offers this V-8 "Go" today!

You may choose from three great transmissions: Fordomatic Drive, Overdrive, or Conventional Drive. For still greater driving ease and pleasure, you may make your Ford as automatic as you like with Power Assists . . . Power Steering, Power Brakes, Power Windows (both front and back), and a 4-Way Power Front Seat.
