Miss Katherine Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Williams of Albuquerque, N.M., and Rev. Ernest Smith of O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith of Naponech, N.Y., were united in marriage at the Immanuel Lutheran church in Albuquerque Monday, September 28. Rev. Carl Schmid, pastor, officiated at the 7:30 p.m., double-ring rite.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of pleated nylon net and chantilly lace over satin. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion net fell from a half-hat of lace and net trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations.

Miss Frances Williams of Albuquerque, maid-of-honor for her sister, wore a dress of pink crystalite and carried a bouquet of bronze feathered mums.

Miss Roberta Williams was the flower girl. She wore a dress of green satin and carried a nosegay bouquet of bronze mums.

The bestman was Edward Massey and Russell Reinecke was the usher.

A reception was held in the auditorium of the church following the ceremony. The bride's grandmother and Mrs. Martin Fritze were in charge.

For traveling, the bride wore a beige ensemble with avocado accessories. Following a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N.M., and Colorado the couple will be at home in O'Neill where the bride's father is pastor of the Christ Lutheran church. He also is pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church in Atkinson.

The bride attended high school in Albuquerque, N.M., and the Lutheran school of nursing in St. Louis, Mo. Before her marriage she was employed by the Presbyterian hospital as a surgical nurse in Albuquerque. Reverend Smith was graduated from Concordia Lutheran seminary in St. Louis, Mo., and came to O'Neill—his first pastorate—in July.

The Smiths arrived in O'Neill Saturday, October 2.
