46 Children, 7 Adults Confirmed

EWING — The religious sacrament of holy confirmation was conferred on 46 children and seven adults at St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing Tuesday, September 28. The children ranged from seven-to-13-years-old. The adults are converts. The sacrament is administered every four years by the archbishop of Omaha. Archbishop Gerald T. Bergan of Omaha was the administering prelate. He has been archbishop of Omaha for 6½ years. Holt and Boyd counties were the scene of 12 confirmation services during the week of September 26. The archdiocese of Omaha takes in all of northeast Nebraska. Priests assisting the archbishop at the confirmation service were: Monsignor Sheehan, chancellor of the archdiocese; Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan of O'Neill; Rev. Peter Burke of Ewing; Rev. Roger Hayes of Clearwater; Rev. Alfred Hoising of St. Johns, and Rev. St. Anthony's hospital at O'Neill.
