

Kansas State Is Victor Over Huskers

The University of Nebraska Cornhuskers were upset Saturday in Memorial stadium, Lincoln, by Kansas State, 3-7. The Huskers scored a field goal with 40 seconds remaining in the first half. K-State punched across a TD late in the final stanza.

Nebraska entertains Oregon State at Lincoln Saturday. Oregon State was humiliated last week by Washington State and appears to be destined for the cellar position in the Pacific coast conference.

The combined St. Mary's academy-O'Neill public school band will go to Lincoln by chartered bus and take part in the band day festivities, which include a forenoon parade on the streets of Lincoln and a half-time massed band demonstration.

Among those attending the Kansas State game were: From O'Neill: Robert Krotter, William Mattern, M. J. Golden, Marvin Miller, Elgin Ray, John Stufferberg, D. E. Nelson, Verne Reynolds.

From Ewing: Merton Dierks, Wayne Shrader, John Napier. From Emmet: Guy Cole.

In 1935, France had 48 auto manufacturers, but now 98 percent of her cars are produced by five manufacturers.

Hot Ewing Tigers Swamp Springview

Tally 26 Points in First Quarter

EWING—The Ewing high Tigers gave the visiting Springview (Keya Paha county) Indians a working over during the first period in Friday night's game here, rolling up 26 points. From that point on, Coach Dick Lane substituted freely and his hot Tigers coasted to a 52-0 victory in a lopsided outing.

Deb Carl racked up the first touchdown. Keith Gibson took it over from the 1 for the second TD. A seven-yard run netted TD number 3. Sonny Carl, a freshman, waltzed eight yards for the fourth marker.

Coach Lane used reserves liberally in the second stanza and from then on out. Sonny Carl cashed in on two more touchdowns.

With 45 seconds left, Lane inserted the first stringers. Jack Sisson took the ball on his own 45, broke through his own left side, reversed the field and traveled 55 yards to score.

Both first and second team lines turned in a fine job. Every football candidate at EHS got in for at least one quarter as Lane swept the bench.

This week the Tigers face Tilden. Last season the Tigers barely squeezed through with a 6-2 margin. The Cornbelt league might hinge on this one.

Belated Aerial Spurt Falls Short

Soph Stracke Fires Strong Finish

STUART — The Stuart high Broncos and Atkinson high Balers played to a hard fought 6-6 tie at Stuart's annual homecoming day football game Friday night, October 8.

Stuart, outweighed some 25 pounds by Atkinson's big line, almost pulled the game out of the fire in the last 30 seconds.

Anderson of Atkinson scored from 40 yards out on a reverse early in the first quarter. Stuart fumbled on the 1-yard line in the same period, but finally cashed in as the first-half whistle blew on a 1-yard plunge by Hytrek.

The Balers threatened on an interception in the third quarter but the Broncos held on the 10.

With four minutes left the Broncos uncorked the most devastating air attack seen in quite a spell.

With the ball resting on Stuart's 25, Stracke, Stuart's sophomore quarterback, hit seven straight passes and was on the Atkinson 6 with 30 seconds left.

A fourth down pass to Sophomore Faltshorst was low and bobbed in the end zone.

Atkinson's big line held the Stuart running attack most of the game.

Stracke hit 10 of 15 passes. Hoffman, Timmerman and Minnie were Stuart's best on defense while Hytrek was the backfield workhorse.

Cards Close Home Season with Loss

Coach Don Templemeyer's St. Mary's academy Cardinals were shelacked Thursday evening in Carney park here by the Marty Mission (S. D.) Indians, 40-0.

It was the final home game of the season for the Cardinals, who are having difficulty winning a single six-man encounter this year. Templemeyer has been obliged to build a team this season from scratch.

The Cards travel to Lynch today (Thursday).

CHAMBERS—Walt Richards is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital.

CATTLE Market Report

Monday & Tuesday Oct. 11-12, Auction Atkinson, Nebr.

Cattle receipts for the two days stood at 3,624 head, of which 2,000 were calves. Demand marked improvement in quality and an improved demand accounted for a higher market.

A long string of choice yearling steers from Dvorak Bros., Atkinson, sold at 20.15 and 21.25

— 6 carloads of the Dewey Schaffer 2-year-olds sold from 20.35 to 20.70 a hundred. Choice cattle got the preference and all looked 50c to 75c higher. Bulk of choice steers from 19.00 to 21.50 — medium kinds at 17.00 to 18.00. Not many heifers on sale, prices steady. Cows, butcher cattle and bulls 50c higher.

Monday's calf sale was very good with all the choice steer calves bringing from 22.50 to 25.25 and heifers of like quality at 18.00 to 19.00. Demand remained good all day.

Special Notice: We already have over 2,500 calves booked for Monday, Oct. 18th, Auction. That is about enough for one day. So why not book yours now for the following Monday, Oct. 25th, Calf Sale? Help us to help you by keeping the runs uniform through the heavy marketing season.

For Tuesday, October 19th, Auction we can use a lot more cattle, especially yearling steers and heifers, as well as cows and butcher cattle. Listings as of now are only 800 head so we can give you a good turn in the auction.

Ainsworth Cops from O'Neill, 25-13

5 Fumbles Are Costly to Eagles

The visiting Ainsworth Bulldogs capitalized on O'Neill fumbles to wreck the Eagles, 25-13, Friday night in Carney park here. The visitors scored one touchdown in each the first and second quarters and added two for parting moments in the fourth.

The Eagles mustered one TD in the second and one in the third. Five O'Neill bobbles in the backfield proved costly. O'Neill was on the offensive 17 times, but the Ainsworth forwards failed to yield ground in the pinches.

O'Duane Alton scored O'Neill's first TD from the 2-foot line in the second stanza on a plunge through the line. Tomlinson raced for pay dirt from the Ainsworth 11 in the third quarter, skirting left end.

Alton and Tomlinson were the big guns for O'Neill while R. Brede and Gabbert looked best for the victors.

Institute Planned Sunday at Chambers

CHAMBERS—A Sunday-school institute will be held on Sunday, October 17, with St. Paul's Lutheran church of Chambers as the host to the north-Nebraska district, circuit 7.

Visiting congregations from O'Neill, Atkinson, Ainsworth, Crookston, Spencer, Stuart, Lynch, Burton and Venus will be present.

The institute will begin at 3 p.m. The purpose of this session is to acquaint teachers and members with the latest techniques and procedures for Sunday-school instruction, to discuss problems, to review literature, and better apply Christian fundamentals and doctrines to everyday living, especially on the age level of the child being taught.

Rev. D. A. Christiansen will present a paper, "A Systematic Sunday - School Program." Discussion, film strips, a demonstration class, and a business meeting with the election of officers will complete the program. Supper will be served at 5 p.m. The session is due to adjourn at 8:30 p.m.

All the members and friends of St. Paul's, as well as the official delegates and congregations, are invited to attend, according to the church pastor, Rev. Howard Claycombe, jr.
