

State Hospital Escapee Is Found

Riverside Locality Is Scene of Search

RIVERSIDE — The Riverside neighborhood was a stir Sunday night and a portion of Monday. A prowler sighted near the Wendell Switzer place touched off the search. Many folks joined in the hunt late Sunday and again on Monday. Finally, a man, identified as an escapee from the Norfolk state hospital, was located at the Ralph Schrader place.

Neva G. Johnson an October Bride

STUART — The altar of the Community church here was decorated with baskets of marigolds, dahlias and mums for the wedding of Miss Neva G. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, and James G. Hoffman, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffman, sr., on Thursday, October 14.

The 1:30 p.m., double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Anderson of Newport.

Mrs. Merle Spillman of Hay Springs, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always," with Mrs. Robert Brayton at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white slipper satin fashioned with an illusion yoke.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a coronet of tulle embroidered with seed pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of American beauty roses.

Miss Beverly Bolen, friend of the bride, served as maid-of-honor. Her floor-length gown of tulle and blue taffeta was fashioned with a gathered skirt and tight bodice with short puff sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. She wore a matching headband and carried a yellow chrysanthemum corsage.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. Marvin Johnson, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of American beauty red taffeta, fashioned similar to that of the maid-of-honor with matching headband. She carried a yellow chrysanthemum corsage.

Little Miss Dorothy Johnson, miniature bride, wore a dress matching that of the bride and carried red roses. She is a young sister of the bride. Two miniature bridesmaids, Darlene Hoffman and Kay Johnson, sisters of the bride and bridegroom, wore matching gold color taffeta gowns with matching headbands and carried rose corsages.

Robert Hoffman served his brother as bestman and Marvin Johnson, brother of the bride, was groomsman. The men wore gray business suits with white carnation boutonnieres. The miniature bridegroom, Jerry Hoffman, son of Bill Hoffman of Napier, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Ushers were Roger Johnson, brother of the bride, and Harold Johnson of Fremont, uncle of the bridegroom. The bride's mother chose a street-length dress of aqua color and the bridegroom's mother a Copenhagen blue dress. Both wore red carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the city auditorium for 75 guests. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Harold Butler, Mrs. George Eolen, Mrs. Earl Cadwallader, Mrs. Henry Hutcheson, Mrs. Tom King, Mrs. Ward Alexander and Mrs. Max Weichman.

Miss Carol Hoffman, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guestbook and Mrs. Lloyd Pounds of Rushville, sister of the bride, was in charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Hoffman was a junior in Stuart high school and Mr. Hoffman was graduated from Stuart high school, class of 1953.

We're out to make a Record
— and how can we miss with a hit like this? —

WE'RE shooting for the biggest October in Buick history and we're willing to go all out to make it. Right now, Buick is outselling every other car in the nation—regardless of price class—except two of the so-called "low-priced three."

So you know that it has the combination of horsepower—room—comfort—performance—and styling too good to miss.

And it isn't hard for you to figure out that Buick dealers must be offering the kind of prices and trade-ins that the public goes for—because you can't make record sales these days unless you have everything it takes to make a winning combination.

Come in and see us, and you'll know what we mean.

Here's the big 3-Way Bonus we offer in Buick today

- 1. Advanced Styling—the very look of tomorrow, with long, low glamor lines, sports-car snap, and that trend-setting panoramic windshield that most other cars won't have till 1955 or later.
- 2. Better Buy—a lot more automobile for your money—more room and power and ride comfort and solidity of structure—plus the higher resale value of a car that will still be fresh and new-looking well into the future.
- 3. Top Allowance—from the tremendous volume that has put Buick into the top 3 of the nation's best sellers. So you get the benefit of our soaring success in the form of a higher trade-in allowance on your present car. Come in and check!
