Stuart Broncos Blanked by Bulldogs

Ainsworth Victor in Hardfought Game

STUART—The Ainsworth high Bulldogs defeated the Stuart Broncos on Friday night in a hard-fought homecoming game at Ainsworth.

The game was highlighted by the stiff and bruising tackling displayed by both teams, resulting in many injuries.

The Bulldogs scored early in the second period on a 35-yard march after a Stuart kick squirted out of bounds deep in Stuart territory. The Broncos pressed close on passes to Paxton and Brewster.

Brewster bobbed a pass on the 3-yard line to end a Stuart threat. The half time score was 7-0.

The Broncos did everything but score in the second half, controlling the ball throughout, but costly penalties nullified all the scoring opportunities.

Hytek had runs of 40 and 20 yards called back and a 35-yard pass play to Bigelow to the 10 was also nullified. With four of Stuart's defensive team out, Ainsworth tallied with two minutes left in the game on a beautiful 25-yard screen pass after penalties had set up the opportunity.

The Broncos outgained the Bulldogs both on the ground and in the air but could not punch across a touchdown.

Hytek, Stuart fullback, was outstanding, picking up yardage at will through the Ainsworth line.

Little Bobby Hoffman, Stuart guard, played one of the best games of his three years' of competition and was in over 50 percent of his team's tackles.

Ainsworth's big line and unfortunate penalties were the big factors in the defeat of the Broncos.

Miss Glea Bowden Weds Robert Gude

Miss Glea Bowden, daughter of Mrs. Audrey Bowden on Nebraska City, is safety patrolman for the state of Nebraska.

The bridegroom, a graduate of St. Bernard's academy in Nebraska City, is safety patrolman for the state of Nebraska.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bro and family of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. David Kreifels of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Theo. H. Gude of Nebraska City; Mrs. James Finley of Page; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Johnson of Walnut; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Nelson of Verdigris; Mr. and Mrs. George Wettlaufer of Page, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wettlaufer of Page.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Paul Closson, wore a floor-length gown of white lace fashioned with a high collar, long tapering sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. She wore pearl ear rings and a pearl choker. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

The bestman was Herbert Gude, matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a floor-length gown of turquoise lace and net, fashioned with a lace bodice with Elizabethan collar and cap sleeves. The full net skirt had intricate lace. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bestman was Herbert Gude of Omaha, a cousin of the bridegroom. The ushers were Frank McKenny and Gene Closson.

Mrs. Robert Berigan, organist, accompanied the choir in their singing "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was given by the bride's mother at the Town House for the wedding party and their immediate families. Centerpieces of blue and white daisies decorated the table.

A reception was held in the afternoon. The three-tiered bride cake decorated with white roses, turquoise bells and a bride and groom, centered the wedding table. Miss Loreta Cuddy had charge of the guest book. Miss Doris Sterns of Lincoln poured, and the Misses Joyce Miller and Doris Pierson, both of O'Neill, had charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride chose a blue suit with gray accessories. The couple will be at home at Plainview after October 25.

Mrs. Gude was graduated from O'Neill high school and attended Norfolk Business college. Until her marriage, she was employed
