Dear Sir:

Your article on locating of U.S. highway 281 is so ludicrous it is plain silly. Your statement that it laying 281 on top of highway 18 would mean more gas tax is astounding.

The fact is: The opposite is true.

The Black Hills traffic would in all cases still have highway 18 to travel the identical route you are outlining. There is a strong probability that if highway 281 goes the east survey, highway 275 could be extended to Fairfax, S.D., by Butte and Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Townsend of Columbus visited Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Townsend's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Townsend.

Letters to Editor

Bristow, Nebr., October 25, 1954

Dear Sir:

Your article on locating of U.S. highway 281 is so ludicrous it is plain silly. Your statement that it laying 281 on top of highway 18 would mean more gas tax is astounding.

The fact is: The opposite is true.

The Black Hills traffic would in all cases still have highway 18 to travel the identical route you are outlining. There is a strong probability that if highway 281 goes the east survey, highway 275 could be extended to Fairfax, S.D., by Butte and Omaha.
