Sunny Graham Cranberry Cheesecake

A brand-new "beauty" of a dessert, a taste treat that's as tempting to the eye as it is to the palate, offers a special plus to the hostess this season: it's also a real quick-and-easy to make! This newcomer, Sunny Graham Cranberry Cheesecake, is a delicious unbaked two-layer cheesecake, made with crushed sugar honey graham cracker crumbs and luscious red cranberry sauce. It's elegant and it's easy; try it this way and see for yourself.

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon 1 cup granulated sugar 3 cups cottage cheese (24 oz.), sieved 1/4 teaspoon salt 2 3-oz. packages cream cheese 2 eggs 1 teaspoon vanilla 1 cup milk 1 tablespoon orange juice 2 teaspoons grated orange rind 1 cup heavy cream, whipped 4 tablespoons melted butter 2 cups fresh cranberry sauce (or 1 can cranberry sauce) 3 tablespoons granulated sugar 1 1/2 cups Sunshine Sugar Honey Graham Cracker crumbs

Combine gelatin, 1 cup sugar, salt, slightly beaten egg yolks, and milk in top of double boiler over boiling water. Cook, stirring constantly, about 10 minutes. Add grated orange rind, and cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, grease two 8 or 9-inch round layer cake pans. Combine melted butter, 3 tablespoons sugar, Sunshine Sugar Honey Graham Cracker crumbs, and cinnamon. Blend well. Sprinkle half of crumbs over bottom of greased pans, reserving remainder to coat cake. Combine cottage cheese and cream cheese. Blend well; fold into gelatin mixture. Add vanilla and orange juice. Beat egg whites stiff, and fold with whipped cream into cheese mixture. Pour half of mixture into each of prepared cake pans. Chill until firm. Loosen sides of layers with knife. Invert one layer onto chilled serving plate. Spread top generously with cranberry sauce. Top with remaining layer. Sprinkle sides and top of cake with remaining crumbs. Garnish edge of plate with whole cranberries and fresh green leaves. Cut into wedges for serving. Makes 8 generous servings.
