

John Christon, 78, Burial at Ewing

John Christon, 78, of Newport died at the Antelope Memorial hospital Sunday, November 14. Mr. Christon, only son in a family of one son and four daughters, was born to Peter and Anna Christon April 14, 1876, in Illinois. At an early age he was baptized into the Lutheran faith. His parents moved to Saunders county, Nebraska, when he was 5-years-old, then two years later moved to a homestead northeast of Ewing. When he was 12, both parents and one sister died during an influenza epidemic.

On March 4, 1901, he was married to Ernestine Iburg at the home of the bride's parents near Ewing. To this union five sons and two daughters were born.

He was preceded in death by his wife on October 30, 1949. Survivors include: Sons—Carl and Walter, both of Ewing, Irvin of Newport, Ernest of Boise, Ida, Robert of Denver, Colo.; daughters — Mrs. Clarence (Marie) Thorin of Neligh, Mrs. Carl (Dorothy) Ulvog of Midland, Tex.; and 18 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Monday, November 15, at the United Presbyterian church in Ewing with Rev. F. E. Anderson of Newport and Rev. W. J. Bomer of Ewing officiating. Burial was in the Ewing cemetery.

The men's quartet composed of Ed Hoag, Eben Graff, Reverend Bomer and Leo Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Wilbur Spangler, sang the family's three favorite hymns: "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder" and "Give Me Thy Heart."

Pallbearers were Oliver Gilz, Price Alderman and C. D. Farr, all of Newport, and George Ruede, Ralph and Eddy Shrader, all of Ewing.

It's Tangerine Time—Tra La!

Fragrant and fresh tangerines—fruit from our South—suggest wonderfully glamorous desserts. A treat for the eyes—this gourmet dish is simplicity itself to concoct, divine to eat... and a perfect ending for a big dinner. If you are influenced by West Coast ways, then you might like to serve this charming arrangement of fruit, honey and coconut, as an appetizer. And here's one more idea—when the youngsters are hungry between meals, invite them into the kitchen... give them fresh tangerines, a box of coconut, a jar of honey. Supply each confection "manufacturer" with his own plate—that's enough of a hint for any boy or girl!

Tangerine Honey Dessert

- 3 peeled tangerines
- 3 tablespoons honey
- 1/2 cup shredded coconut
- Toasted blanched almonds

Separate tangerine sections and remove clinging pulp and seeds. Pour honey over tangerine sections. Then lift sections from honey and roll in coconut. Arrange on serving plates (on galax leaves, if available) to resemble flower petals. Place a few almonds in center of each serving. Makes 6 servings.
