

Receives State Award

Miss Elizabeth O'Malley (above), member of a pioneer O'Neill family, recenty received a citation for being the top-ranking vital statistics reporter, in point of service, in Nebraska and one of 10 top-rankers in the nation. She has recorded 18,656 births, and 4,048 deaths since taking the job in 1910.-The Frontier Photo.

Ticket Scramble Is Turkey Day Feature CHAMBERS—Funeral services for Clair Grimes, 64, veteran rural mail carrier, were conducted Monday, November 29, from the Methodist church here. Rev.

Meanwhile, O'Neill was transformed into a Christmas city at 8 p.m., Wednesday, December 1, as display windows were unveiled and newly-pur-chased yule decorations on

In the display window decora-

Religious: Niobrara Valley

Judges were Mrs. James Cov-

O'Neill stores will be open

Thursday evenings until 9, starting tonight. The Thursday opening policy will be effective also December 9, 16, and 23. Sat-

Seniors: Ardyce Alton, Jean-

Juniors: Nina Burival, Robert

Freshmen: Michael Liddy, Lyn-

CELIA-Mrs. Ray Pease was chosen "homemaker of the week" ty listeners of KOIL and interviewed over KOIL Friday, November 19, by Julie Burns on the "Jaunting with Julie" pro-

Mrs. Spann accompanied her aaughter to Omaha for the inter-

Mrs. Pease is one of Nebraska's best-known homemaking columnists for newspapers.

Sanders, Norma Timmerman.

Linda Serck, Janice Sipes.

bel Thomas.

urday night store hours will fol-

Electric Membership corporation

Elkhorn Flower Shop, second.

lamp posts were energized.

ments were made:

both of Chambers.

Basin Group Starts

at O'Neill

been set for 300 at $3 each.

Plans for the drive were completed Monday evening when representatives of the Chamber of Commerce met with officers of the Niobrara association. Basin officers present were: E. C. House, director; La Verne Prang, secretary; L. R. Smith, membership drive chairman, and William Smith, attorney for the association, all of Ainsworth. It is suggested that each business buy an individual membership for each employee. In asking for the initial appropriation from congress, one of the first Commercial: Gambles, first; questions asked will be: How many members are there in the Nibrara River Basin Development association? The officers are interested in a large membership in the basin association. Benefits to Holt county from the proposed irrigation development are "incalculable."

Sixty-six thousand acres are included in the O'Neill unit. The low the customary policy: Open gross income per acre before ir- until 10. rigation from the land now in the Mirage flats unit was $15 per acre. Since the development of the Mirage flats unit, the gross income has been increased to $107 per acre in 1953. Benefits which would accrue in Holt county could be similar.

During the past 10 or 12 years, there have been periods when have increased yields in Holt honor roll for the second sixwater at the right time would weeks period, according to Princounty. Previous to that time, cipal Paul Baker: crop yields would have been assured practically every year if ene Backhaus, Owen Davis, Janwater for irrigation had been et Hull, Marilyn Lindberg, Bob

Those from O'Neill present at the meeting were: William Mc-Intosh, Robert Hornby, Robert, Krotter, Ed Wilson, William Bowker, Ed Thorin, Melvin Ruzicka, Harry Ressel, Harry Smith and Lyle Dierks.

Omaha Postmaster, O'Neill Native, Dies

Omaha Postmaster John H.
Hopkins, 67, died of a heart attack Monday night at his home in Omaha, 204 North 52d street.
Hopkins that day He and Mrs. Hopkins that day had celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary.

The late Mr. Hopkins was born at O'Neill. He was Douglas county sheriff from 1934 to 1938 and had been postmaster since April,

Survivors include. Widow Alice; daughters-Mrs. Keith M. Griffith, Mrs. Frank J. Wear and Miss Patricia, all of Omaha; Mother Joan Hopkins, Barat college, Religious of the Sacred Heart, Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith of Sioux Falls, S.D.; six grandchildren; brothers -Frank of Omaha, Thomas of Los Angeles, Calif.; sisters-Mrs. T. J. Martin of Houston, Tex., Mrs. Arthur Heires of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Edward Manning of Elk Point, S.D. Funeral services will be today (Thursday) at 8:30 a.m., from the residence, at St. Mary's church at 9. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

Man Killed when

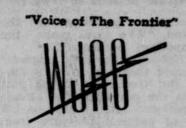

Train Hits Car-CHADRON-Earl H. Grass, about 38, Chadron rancher, was killed late Monday near here when the pickup truck he was riding in was in a collision with a Chicago and North Western diesel passen-

Seriously injured was Donald Christensen, about 27, Chadron farmer, who suffered two broken legs and a broken arm.

Patrol Speeding

The Nebraska Safety Patrol made 62 percent more arrests for speeding during October than it did in the same month last year.

Use of radar and the fact more patrolmen were on highway duty were the chief reasons for the sharp increase, according to Patrol Capt. Ivan Casey, of the Lincoln state patrol office.

HE FRONTIER

TWENTY PAGES

In 3 Sections

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

O'Neill, Nebr., Thursday, December 2, 1954.

Volume 74.—Number 31.

ClairGrimes Rites Held atChambers

Veteran Mail Carrier Victim of Lingering Heart A i l m e n t

Monday evening in the company of two O'Neill boys.

The girls told Tomjack they reached O'Neill the day before

O'Neill will be hosts to thousands of visitors on Saturday, December 4—the date of the ancemetery under the direction of

Drive for Members

December 4—the date of the annual turkey day. Four trucks will depart simultaneously on the streets at 4:30 p.m., distributing tickets. Lucky ticket holders may claim the fowl until 6 p.m., at the Spelts-Ray Lumber company

Nords

December 4—the date of the annual cemetery under the direction of Biglin's.

Mr. Grimes died Friday, November 26, in Clarkson hospital, Omaha, where he had been a patient about a week.

The body lay in state at the beautiful direction of Biglin's.

Mr. Grimes died Friday, November 26, in Clarkson hospital, Omaha, where he had been a patient about a week. Omaha, where he had been a pat- 4 church between 10 a.m., and the Three hundred dollars' worth funeral hour. Pallbearers were of turkeys, geese and chickens C V. Robertson, Alvin Tange-A membership drive for the Niobrara Basin Development association was launched Wednesday in O'Neill. The goal here has the services. Ushers were Eugene Baker and Gaius Wintermote.

The late Mr. Grimes was born January 19, 1890, at Kankakee, Ill., a son of Jerome D., and Sarah Ellen Kinkaid Grimes.

He came to Holt county from In inois in 1893. tion contest, the following place-On June 21, 1916, he married Lovena Adams. They became the Atkinson, 4; Bassett, 3; Stuart, 3, Mr. Grimes, who had been seriously ill about two weeks, was member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the entry of Inman, Mrs. Kenneth Methodist church.

Adams and Mrs. C. V. Robertson, Mr. Grimes and Mr. Grimes suffered a heart ailment and had been hospitalized several times. He was taken by ambulance to Omaha Saturday, November 20, having been transferred from St. Anthony's hospital, O'Neill, to Clarkson hospital.

Survivors include: daughters-Mrs. L. E. (Arlene) Coppoc of Ottumwa, Ia., and Mrs. Hiram (Lela) Conley of Mt. Rose, Colo.; sons—Edward of Fresno, Calif., and Milton of OHS Honor Roll Omaha; seven grandchildren sister — Mrs. Marguerite Brittell By virtue of attaining an academic average off B-plus or bet-ter, the following O'Neill high of Vancouver, Wash.; brothers

– Jay D. of Douglas, Wyo., James and Gleason, both of Chambers.

Penny Carnival Held at Inman

INMAN-The high school Pep club sponsored a penny carnival Friday evening, November 19. St. Burival, Marilyn Carroll, Mary There were side shows, dart Fetrow, Kay Hibbs, Carolyn Lindberg, Vernon Passieux, Magames, food booths and other features. The club made $118 before expenses were deducted. The carnival attracted a Sophomores: Marlene Ermer, Gordon Fox, Carole Johnson, large crowd. Judy Liddy, Demaris Lindberg, The Inman high junoir class presented its class play, "Aaron Neill, 71-50.

Slick from Punkin Creek," Tuesday night, November 23. There was a good crowd and the play was enjoyed very much.

The school was dismissed at roon Wednesday, November 24, for the Thanksgiving vacation and took up again Monday.

Goes to Omaha for Radio Interview

Mrs. Nora Henderson 83-Years-Oldniversary Tuesday, November 23. Several friends called during the day and were served ice cream, cake and coffee. Her daughter, Mrs. Harley Kennedy, baked the birthday cake. Mrs. Henderson is quite active. She attends the Methodist church and seldom misses the WSCS meetings where she spends the hours quilting. She recently had her first airplane ride. She spent her 80th birthday anniversary at the Kennedy home and enjoyed a horse-

Julie (left) and Mrs. Pease . . . radio interview. (Mrs. Pease is The Frontier's homemaking editor.)

Runaway Girls, 16, Are Located Here

Two 16-year-old Butte, Mont., runaway girls, Ruby Calkins and Sharon Askins, are being held by Holt County Sheriff Leo Tomjack pending the arrival today (Thursday) of the girls' parents. Police Officer Walt Calkins, when had been observing the had been observing the girls since their arrival on Sunday, asked Tomjack to question the girls who were located on and had spent the night in a hotel. They were not without funds. The parents indicated the girls had been "gone for several days."

Mercury to Dip to 5-Above Today

Inches of Snow Falls Here

The mercury was expected to drop to 5-degrees above zero in the early morning hours today (Thursday)-the lowest mark for

A mass of cold air moved into the region this week apparently signaling the end of a prolonged Indian summer.

Highest temperatures today will be around 32 degrees. Tuesday's snowfall was general in north-central Nebraska Reports of snowfall include Spencer, 6 inches; Plainview, 3 Eristow, 5; Neligh, 1; Inman, 3; Valentine, 8; Chadron, 5; Scott O'Neill received 4 inches, was restricted.

Streets and highways are

Summary		Hi	Lo	Prec.
November	24	45	30
November	25	42	16
November	26	52	27	.02
November	27	50	26	.01
November	28	39	23
November	29	43	18	-
November	30	34	25	.24
December	1	31	19

Don Kelley Hits 29 for Tigers

Mary's Cards Downed, 71-50

INMAN-Don Kelley, with 29 points, led the way Tuesday night as Inman downed the visiting St. Mary's cagers from O'-St. Mary's was paced by Tom Head, who accounted for 17 markers.

Jim Becker and Schaffer acccunted for 11 points each. Inman led, 39-21, at intermission. In the preliminary, the little Tigers were victorious over the SMA reserves, 42-33. Holly led the losers with 17 points.

The Cards will go against the PAGE—Mrs. Nora Henderson observed her 83d birthday an- in the annual intracity cage classic.

Former Resident

EWING-Mrs. Winnie Florence Wright, 76, of Everett, Wash., died recently. Death came after she suffered her second heart attack. The late Mrs. Wright formerly resided northeast and Theola Stolp of Arlington, Wash.; five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren. Mrs. Wright's first husband, Charles Slack, died December 7, 1936. Mrs. Wright lived in Washington the past 17 years.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

vember 24.

Dennis Dwight LaFave, 21, of Onida S.D., and Lorna Mae Stevens, 19, of Page, November 27.

Mrs. H. S. Moses left Friday, November 19, for Imperial to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Evans, and

Mrs. Joesph Axtell . . . "wilted flower."-The Frontier Photo.

'Nothing Fancy' in 103 Years

STUART- Holt county's old-1 which amounted to .24 of an est resident, Mrs. Joseph Axtell, sunshine, but tartly remarked: a plain life, nothing fancy. during the early Tuesday morning hours was accompanied by Her daughter, Miss Pearl, had (Cal statement of the control of the c considerable wind and visibility prepared the chicken dinner and wo longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Storie of Atkinson, ber 27, "Voice of The Frontier" gathered around the table to partake of the holiday bounty. During the forenoon the big page in the guest book began to fill. Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Su of the Stuart Community church had signed their names in Chinese script, also other friends and neighbors had called.

Mrs. Axtell came to the table in her wheelchair (she has been relying heavily on the chair since she took a fall on August 11). Between bites from a drum stick, Mrs. Axtell reminisced.

She was born in New York state November 25, 1851. When she was a small girl her parents were told by the family doctor to take their daughter west. They lived for a time in Iowa before coming to Nebraska. Mrs. Axtell, whose maiden name was Alice Butterfield, was married at Valentine in 1886. They lived on a prairie homestead for many years, burned hay and cowchips, and fared as best they could against the hazards of frontier life - drouths, prairie fires, Indians, pestilences. On her 103d birthday anniversary, Mrs. Axtell recounted Indian visits at their shanty.

"Once nine of them came. was a little bit nervous. I was and friends were recorded as alone—but a neighbor came and stayed until the Indians left. "One other time I spread quite a table for the Indians who stop-

Mr. Axtell died in 1911. In 1924, Mrs. Axtell and her only child, Miss Pearl, moved into Stuart. They reside in the northeast part of town.

Mrs. Axtell loves to sit in the explained: "I've always lived Pickup Hits Bridge; "It makes me feel like a wilted never considered we had Axtell and the playback was heard on the Saturday, Novem- would catch a cat nap. program.)

Asked if she had a recipe for longevity or recommendations for young people, Mrs. Axtell organ by Mrs. Axtell's daughter.

hardships. We just took things (Cal Stewart interviewed Mrs. as they came.'

Between visitors Mrs. Axtell In days past Mrs. Axtell has greatly enjoyed singing. She

Allyns Wed 50 Years

STUART—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin his parents, who were home-Allyn of the Cleveland communi- steaders, ty in the northwest corner of Holt county, held open - house Saturday, November 27, from 2 to 4:30 p.m., in celebration of their glden wedding anniversary. A beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums, presented by the Ladies Aid and Men's council of the Cleveland Presbyterian church, decorated the living room where Mr. and Mrs. Allyn greeted their friends.

The five-tier white wedding cake decorated with yellow flowers and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was baked and decorated by their daughter, Delia McClurg.

Mrs. James Deming, sister of Mrs. Allyn, poured, and the granddaug ers served refreshments.

Mrs. Lawrence Lofquest, sister-in-law, was in charge of the guestbook in which 91 relatives guests. They were married in Butte on December 6, 1904. The 50th anniversary affair was held in advance of the anniversary so four granddaughters, who attend college, could be present during the Thanksgiving vacation. Mr. Allyn came to Cleveland community from Iowa in 1885, a lad of 5-years. He came with

Mrs. Allyn, nee Mabel Lof-

quest, was born on her father, Sven Lofquest's, homestead in the same community.

They both attended the Clay Creek rural school and their six children learned the "3 R's" in the same school. Several of the couple's grandchildren attend there now.

Mr. and Mrs. Allyn's home located on Beaver Creek, about way 20 east of Stuart. There were 17 miles north of Stuart, where they started housekeeping and have developed a sizeable ranch. home a few rods from their orig-

They have retired in a modern inal home, which is now occupied by their son, James, and his family, who are operating the ranch in a father-son partner-

The Allyns always have been and still are active in the Cleveland Presbyterian church and in community affairs. Always good neighbors, they are ready with a helping hand in sickness and Mrs. Allyn frequently was called upon during the early days to serve as a midwife. There was little hospitalization in those days because hospitals and doctors were few and far between.

(Continued on page 4)

of Ewing Expires Revell Story Begins in Orphanage

Each year the Holt county soil and then crop it a year or so be-censervation district supervisors fore reseeding. He has planted are obliged to select one cooper- over 160 acres of trees (mostly ator to represent the district in by hand) on his place since he the Goodyear award competition. started operating the farm in This year they selected E. J. Re- 1915. Approximately two-thirds Funeral services were conducted at Everett. Interment was in Cypress Lawn Memorial park in Cypress Lawn Memorial park in Cypress Lawn Memorial park in Cypress in a practical way and tonist—one who eagerly accepts progress in a practical way and the conservation is a true conservation of the cypress in a practical way and the cypr vell, 74, of Star as an outstand- of the farm is in native grass be-is a loveable, hard-working, eldgentleman, who has a world of wisdom for the young-McDermott, 22, of O'Neill, No- that all who know him by name may know him better.

He is very active in the manual labor involved in op-erating a 3,000-acre farm. He has the help of his son, Dale, and son-in-law, M. E. Davis, in the overall operation.

1915. Approximately two-thirds ing used for either hay or pas-

Through the conservation efwho is a true conservationist at forts of the Revells and a few neighbors, they had effected a Mr. Revell is regarded as a watershed program for Steel man who has known good times creek long before the words "wa-and bad and has overcome more tershed planning" were publithan his share of hardships. He cized. Although not planned for the purpose of flood control, the conservation practices of Mr. Revell and his neighbors have staer generation if they would but bilized Steel creek. He has 24 listen. Not being one to burden dams on his place alone-four of Maurice Chester Parks, 22 of others with personal details, his which form excellent fish ponds. Scottsbluff and Marleen Claire life story is presented in brief so The remainder are "dry" dams whose basins fill up after each rain but the water seeps into the was all hand work. Now he usgravel subsoil in a few days. This uaily plans to leave most of the conservation effected on the upper part of Steel creek has made and has produced a tremendous fence repair and bridge and road amount of seed annually for the washouts a thing of the past. past several years. went on a rampage after every not merely a grain and hay farm. ery, household goods; Col. Ed.
He has over 200 acres protect- rain, gullying the farm land, de- He makes good use of his hay Thorin, O'Neill, auctioneer; O'family. Mr. Moses joined her on ed by terraces and waterways stroying fences, bridges and road and pastures with his herd of Neill National bank, clerk. Wednesday, November 24, and the believes that a they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

Wednesday, November 24, and the believes that a they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways stroying fences, they have been discovered by the believes that a they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

Wednesday, November 24, and all of the cropland is strip-grades, during the past several and all of the cropland is strip-grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several and all of the cropland is strip-grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes that a proximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes that a proximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

The believes and waterways grades, during the past several approximately 400 Angus cattle they returned to O'Neill Sunday.

watershed, the creek has never been out of its banks.

Fourteen years ago Mr. Revell received 10 pounds of ranger alfalfa seed from the university for foundation seed production. He has known crop failures before and saved back a double handful of seed which he did not plant.

He failed on the first try grasshoppers. The next year he planted that double handful of seed with success and within a short time had over 300 acres of foundation ranger alfalfa. The small amount of seed was planted in rows by hand. In fact, much of the cultivation was by hand, and, for a time, until the second crop for seed production

City May Get Guard Company

Seven Cents

Committee to Confer with Gen. Heninger, and Col. Peterson Col. Evar Peterson, assistant administrative officer for the Nebraska national guard, Saturday conferred with a Chamber of Commerce group here. Possibili-ty of establishing an armored tank company was discussed. Armory space, officer cadre and possible number of enlisted men available were subjects discussed. The Chamber has invited Brig.-Gen. Guy N. Henninger, Nebraska national guard commander and adjutant general, to hold another conference on Friday, December 10. Colonel Peterson, who is a brother of Former Gov. Val Peterson, has indicated he would be here. It will be an overnight trip and several possible armory sites will be inspected. A guard company, if established at O'Neill, would be designated as company D. Several other cities are interested in getting the proposed new company located there. The Chamber's new industries committee is leading the movement to bring the company to C'Neill. James W. Rooney heads that committee.

Plank Thru 'Shield EWING-Ed Spes, driver of a pickup, escaped serious injury Sunday when the vehicle, owned by Ruby Schindler of Elgin, went out of control at the Cache creek bridge three miles south of Ewing. The machine struck a bridge railing, sending a plank through the windshield. The car overturned and landed in the Mr. Spes suffered only facial cuts and a neck bruise. He was taken to Antelope Memorial hospital, Neligh. Deputy Holt County Sheriff James Mullen investi-

O'Neill-Bound Bus

Overturns at Stuart No one was hurt Tuesday afternoon about 1 o'clock when an O'Neill-bound bus from Valentine overturned on slippery U.S. high-four passengers aboard. Crook Family Moving to Minnesota-The Charles B. Crook family will move to Detroit Lakes, Minn., this weekend. Mr. Crook, a graduate of Kansas State college, has served the Holt soil conservation district for the past 81/2 years as soils scientist. He has also mapped soils for the Boyd, KBR and Cherry Soil Conservation Districts, Mr. Crook served a 60-day detail at Furgus Falls, Minn., earlier this fall and found that he "feels much better" in that climate. They have been active in 4-H, county, church and school activ-

To Join Husband— ORCHARD—Mrs. Clayton Johnson left Saturday for Ft. Lewis, Wash., to join her husband who is stationed there. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robertson, and they were to visit the Robertsons' sonin-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Orr, and family at San Jose, Calif., enroute to Ft. Lewis. The Robertsons will return here later.

Holiday Guests-Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osenbaugh of Norfolk were Wednesday evening and Thanksgiving day guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osenbaugh. Other guests were Mrs. Ruth Hilderhoff and children of Mullen who visited from Wednesday until Saturday.

Auction Calendar

There are three auctions The Frontier's sale calendar: Monday, December 6: W. David, residing 21 miles south of O'Neill, will offer 75 head of cattle, machinery, some household goods. (Advertisement on page 7.) Cols. Roy David and Ed Thorin, O'Neill, auctioneers: Chambers State bank, clerk. Friday, December 10: Glen Burge, residing 1 mile west of Inman, will offer 45 head of cat-While the little stream formerly | The Revell place certainly is tle, three IHC tractors, machin-

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Snell of Page visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waller.

Stream will tell you that since head of hogs annually. He knows full well the value of proper of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waller.

Stream will tell you that since head of hogs annually. He knows full well the value of proper have been established on many (Continued on page 4)

Stream will tell you that since head of hogs annually. He knows full well the value of proper have been established on many bank, clerk. (Details next issue.)