Murman Cuts Eagle Cage Squad to 24

The O'Neill high Eagles open their 1954-55 basketball season against St. Mary's academy Friday night, December 3.

The squad has been cut to 24, but still no definite starting line has been named. Darold Strong, one of the returning lettermen, quit school, leaving four lettermen but no regulars from last year's squad.

The Eagles lack height and experience but have average speed. Duane Alton and Bob Sanders, both lettermen, are the tall boys at six feet even. Ed Gatz and Dick Gaskill are the other two returning lettermen. Pressing for a starting berth from last year's reserve squad are Frank Fetrow, Larry Strong and Larry Conarro.

Other squad members are: Jim Johnson, Vernon Passieux, Bob Porter, Gordon Fox, Merle Jones, Ken McKim, Skip McKenny,

Richard Shelhamer, Marvin Young, Robert Young, Wayne Baker, Bill Davidson, Leroy Lyons, Bobby McClellan, Larry Feterson, Larry Porter and Bernard Lorenz.
