Capacity Crowd at Yuletide Program

'Tiny Tot Circus' Is Feature
 EWING—A capacity crowd was present last Thursday evening as the Ewing grade school presented its annual Christmas program at the school auditorium. The Ewing school band played a half-hour concert preceding the program Jerry Hahlbeck and Johnnie Wanser were the announcers.
 The "Tiny Tot Circus" was presented by the kindergarten, first and second grades. Frances Bergstrom, in black costume fashioned with long tails and a top hat, presided at the microphone as master-of-ceremonies. He was assisted by Donnie Lane.
 This number featured cowboys, clowns, butterflies, a dancing dog and the "old gray mare" and the rhythm band. Costumes were made by the mothers. Solos were sung by Laura Lee Gamel and Linda Eacker, with Mrs. Donna Carson as accompanist. Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Helen Grim are the teachers.
 The third and fourth grades, taught by Mrs. Kenneth Ruggles, presented two action songs. The girls sang "Mommies Little Helper" and the boys sang "Daddy's Little Cowboy".
 "Christmas Cheer", a one-act play, was presented by the fifth and sixth grades. The play featured the true meaning of Christmas. The group also sang Christmas carols. Miss Margaret Catron is the teacher.
