

Auxiliary Collects Clothing for Needy

EWING—Clothing for the needy will be collected by the American Legion auxiliary of Sanders unit 214. Mrs. L. M. Carter noted that all articles should be cleaned and mended if necessary. This project was stressed at the meeting held Thursday evening at the Legion club.

The session was called to order by Mrs. Carter, president. Colors were presented, flag salute given and the auxiliary preamble read in unison, followed by prayer. A report on the district meeting held at Chambers was given by Mrs. Carter. She also stated that Ewing was the site chosen for the March district meeting.

Christmas activities for the Unit included four tarlantan dolls, handkerchiefs, socks and cigarettes were sent to the Veterans hospital at Lincoln. Gift packages were packed for the "Yanks Who Gave" with the American Legion giving ten dollars for the purchase of gifts.

Mrs. Clarence Hahlbeck and Mrs. Floyd Lee who are putting the finishing touch to comforters made at a special meeting, reported that materials for another comforter was being collected. Carpet rags will be sewn at the January meeting.

The Sanders Post Unit now has a membership of 46, the largest since its organization. They are working hard to keep the district Gavel Bell for Class 2, which they were presented at the Department Convention held in Omaha, for the highest percent over quota in membership in class 2.

On adjournment, gifts placed under the Christmas tree as they entered, were exchanged. The gaily lighted tree was decorated by Mrs. Carter. Mesdames Clarence Hahlbeck, who substituted for her mother, Maud Boies, Lloyd Schmidt, R. H. Shain, Hazel Kimes and Harold Harris served refreshments to about 40 members of the Auxiliary and Legionnaires.
