Longhorns, 39-33
Fat Lead Melts in Thriller Here

The O'Neill high Eagles opened the new year by blasting the Burwell Longhorns, 39-33, here Tuesday night.

The Eagles caught afire with the opening whistle and picked up 10 points before Burwell could find the range. The first quarter ended with the Eagles in command, 12-2.

Burwell found the range in the second quarter to pull even with O'Neill at 12-all. O'Neill hit three quick baskets to take the lead again, and the Eagles never relinquished.

O'Neill led at the half 24-20 and 29-25 at the third quarter, but continuously had to fight off the Burwell attack.

Fetrow was O'Neill's top scorer with 11 points, with Sanders and Alton being O'Neill's best rebounders.

Benneman led Burwell with 13 points with Cunningham doing a good job rebounding plus getting 11 points. O'Neill annexed only seven of 21 freethrow tries; Burwell hit 11 out of 20.

The Eagles entertain Neligh here Friday night, January 7.

Cardinals Sail Against Lynch

Coming to life midway in the second period, the St. Mary's academy Cardinals erased a 14-21 deficit and pulled ahead of Lynch, 22-21, at the half in a cage game played Monday night at Lynch. The Cardinals finished on top, 50-41.

The O'Neill parochial team lost three of the starting five via the foul route in the fourth period.

Coach Don Templemeyer's kids turned in erratic first and fourth periods, but played headsup ball during the second and third stanzas. The Scarlet hit 48 percent of their field goal tries, David Schaffer leading the way with 16
