

Heart Fund Drive Picks Chairmen

Campaign to Extend Thru February

Organization of the 1955 heart fund campaign in O'Neill is progressing rapidly. Dr. Robert M. Langdon, chairman of the campaign, has made public the names of committee chairmen and members in the local drive to raise funds in support of the Nebraska Heart association's program to combat diseases of the heart and circulation.

The committee appointments follow:

Residential collection chairmen

—Mrs. Ira Moss, northwest section; Mrs. Elgin Ray, northeast section; Mrs. Frank Clements, southwest section, and Mrs. Robert Kurtz, southeast section.

Business solicitation committee — Mrs. L. A. Becker, Mrs. H. E. Coyne, Mrs. Sue Deaver, Mrs. Vernon Lorenz, Mrs. William W. Griffin and Mrs. Allan Jaszkwak.

School solicitation chairman — Mrs. Edward Gleason.

Publicity chairman — George Hammond.

Campaign treasurer — F. N. Cronin.

The drive will continue through February. Doctor Langdon pointed out a major portion of the funds subscribed will go for the support of heart projects in this community and state. Part of the money raised, he said, will also be devoted to nationwide research, education and community program activities of the American Heart association, with which the Nebraska group is affiliated.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Sicheneder . . . to reside on farm northeast of Atkinson.—O'Neill Photo Co.

"OLD RELIABLE" MARKET REPORT

Tuesday, Jan. 18th Auction

Cattle receipts totaled 1,047 head. All classes of cattle were well received by a large number of buyers who braved the skiff of snow to attend this week's auction. Steer calves sold mostly 21.00 to 22.75 with choice calves in small supply. Heifer calves 17.00 to 18.50, generally .50 cwt. higher than a week ago. With only a few loads of yearling steers present, prices looked steady with last week's offering. Most steers 20.50 - 22.00 with some plainer kinds at 18.50 - 20.00 cwt. Yearling heifers sold from 15.00 to 17.00 with only a few small lots offered. Canners and cutters largely 7.50 to 8.50; beef kinds 8.50 to 10.50; bologna bulls 10.50 to 12.50 cwt.

Next Week's Auction—January 25 — will be one of the season's largest. If you have cattle to sell, phone Atkinson 5141 and list them today.
