'Aunt Mary' Offers Party Tips

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE, Homemaking Editor

Today we have a valentine party letter from "Aunt Mary" and since it's rather long, we thought we'd use it first, then, if we have any space left, some other material.

Dear Mrs. Pease:
This being the month of parties, I thought maybe a game or two might help out for those who might be going to have a valentine party and then there are Lincoln's and Washington's birthday anniversaries in February, too.

The table can be decorated before the guests arrive. Valentines can be made for placecards, or you can make heart-shaped cookies with each child's name written on a cookie. Heart-shaped molds can be purchased to be used in baking little individual cupcakes. Decorate them any way desired.

One can have a valentine-making contest by dividing the group, the one making the valentine in the shortest time wins a prize. Or if you care to go to a lot of work, fix each guest an envelope with material in it to make a valentine.
Give them just a few minutes to complete their valentines. Have each one sign his name on the finished valentine and mail it in a decorated mail box, having one for the boys and one for the girls.
If you care to have them in partners for the evening, have a boy draw a girl's valentine from the box. The girl whose name he draws will be his partner. If you do not care to have them in partners until lunch time, have the girls draw names (or the boys) and use that for the partner for lunch.

The game of seeing how many words can be made from "valensaid estate is June 3, 1955, and ary 7, 1956, and that on March 3, 1955, and on June 4, 1955, at 10 o'clock A.M., each day, I will time" or "Washington," if it happens to be on Washington's birthday anniversary, never seems to grow old. A prize usually is given for the greatest number of words found.

Another game for a valentine party is to see who can make the largest list of song titles that include the word heart.

A question and answer game is—

WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN

1. Who was taller, Washington or Lincoln?
2. Did Washington or Lincoln live to the greater age?
3. Did Washington or Lincoln say "Give me liberty or give me death"?
4. Who was president when Lincoln was born?
5. When Lincoln was born, had Washington been dead seven, nine, 10 or 20 years?
6. Did Washington sign the Declaration of Independence?
7. Did Washington ever see a (a) steam engine? (b) a kerosene lamp? (c) an elephant? (d) a balloon ascension? (e) a bank check? (f) false teeth?
8. Did Lincoln ever see a (a) telephone? (b) a telegram? (c) a locomotive? (d) a sleeping car? (e) a lawn mower? (f) an electric light?
9. The greatest distance west Abraham Lincoln ever traveled was (a) Quincy, Illinois; (b) Topeka, Kans.; (c) Council Bluffs, Ia.

The answers:
1. Lincoln, 6'4"; Washington, 6'2".
2. Washington, 67; Lincoln, 56.
3. Neither, it was Patrick Henry.
4. Thomas Jefferson.
5. Nine years and 60 days.
6. No, he was in the field with his army.
7. (a) Yes; (b) no; (c) yes; (d) yes; (e) yes; (f) he wore them.
8. (a) No; (b) yes; (c) yes; (d) yes; (e) no; (f) no.
9. Council Bluffs, Ia.

Here are a few more suggestions for valentine day for a small fry group:

TELEPHONE
Form the children into a line.
Start at the head of the line and whisper "Valentines are fun to give and get." Have them pass the message on. The last one in the line must repeat out loud what he thinks has been told. The message will probably surprise you.

TEAR A HEART
Give your guests each a piece of red paper to hold behind their backs. When you say "Go," they must tear the paper into heart-shape, with hands still behind them. The best heart wins, and there are sure to be some funny ones.

HAVE A HEART
Make hearts of red construction paper and then, one at a time, cut them in two with jagged lines.
As soon as your guests have all arrived, give them each half a heart. The first pair to match up wins the prize.

"AUNT MARY"
(Editor's note: Am sorry we haven't space for the rest of this letter.)
