

Sisters Wed Twin Brothers in Double-Wedding Ceremony

ATKINSON—White gladioli appointed the altar of St. Joseph's Catholic church here Monday, February 14, for a double wedding which united in marriage Miss Della Van Fleet and Melvin Mesle and Miss Viola Van Fleet and Marvin Meals.

The brides are the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Fleet and the bridegrooms are twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Meals, all of Atkinson.

Rev. Richard R. Parr performed the double-ring rites before a 9 o'clock nuptial mass.

Both brides appeared in blue suits with white accessories. They wore corsages of pink carnations and carried white prayer books, gifts of the bridegrooms' mother, Mrs. George Meals, and rosaries, gifts of the bridegrooms.

Nuptial music was furnished by St. Joseph's high school choir.

A breakfast for the wedding party was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schmit, sr., The dinner was served at the American Legion hall in Atkinson by friends of the couples. A dance was held in the evening, jointly sponsored by both couples.

For traveling, the brides chose suits of medium blue accented with black accessories. The couples will visit Illinois and points of interest in the Southern states.

Wedding congratulations were conveyed by telephone from Valdez, Alaska, from the bridegrooms' 97-year-old grandmother, and by her son, Owen, with whom she makes her home.

Miss Lois Mullen Weds Charles Fox

The wedding of Miss Lois Mullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mullen of Emmet, and Charles Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox of Norwalk, Calif., took place Wednesday morning, February 16, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. The 9:30 o'clock nuptial rites were solemnized by Rev. Thomas Hitch in a double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of satin with a charmingly lace bodice accented with an Elizabethan collar and long tapering sleeves. The full double skirt was waltz length. Her veil of illusion net fell from an empire crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a carnella corsage.

The bride's cousin, Miss Patricia Mullen of O'Neill, was her bridesmaid. She appeared in a waltz length gown of light blue charmingly lace. She wore a matching hair bandeau and veil, and carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations.

Larry Pribil served his friend as best man. The ushers were Larry and Lyle Fox, both of O'Neill.

Miss Patricia Mullen, sister of the bride, was soloist. She sang "Mother Beloved," "Ave Maria," "Oh Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "On This Day." She was accompanied on the organ by Miss Alvera Ramm of O'Neill.

A breakfast for the wedding party was served at the M&M cafe. A reception for 150 guests was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Mullen and Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly. A three tier cake with bouquets of snapdragons and carnations centered the reception table.

The bride's sister, Patricia, presided at the coffee table and Mrs. Edward Prouty was in charge of the guest book.
