Haselhorst-Audiss Nuptial Rites Are

LYNCH—The Assumption BVM Catholic church in Lynch was the scene of an impressive wedding on Saturday, February 12, when Miss Joyce Haselhorst, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Haselhorst of Bristow, and Dale Audiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Audiss of Butte, were united in marriage. Rev. John Wieczorek, church pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony before a beautifully decorated altar and sanctuary.

The traditional Lohengrin wedbride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The bride wore a white satin and lace floor-length gown. The bodice was lace over satin with a tight-fitting wedding ring waistline with tiny lace-covered buttons that extended down the back to below the waist. Dainty scalloped lace edging outlined a wide silk net yoke which extended into a high Queen Ann collar of lace. The sleeves were traditional wedding gown style of lace which ended in points over the hands. The skirt was of slipper satin with a princess panel of cverlace extending to the hemline in both front and back. Wing hips of full gathered lace edged Deloit had the worst storm of in pleated nylon met the long lace panels in front and back which extended to a small hoop in the

Her fingertip veil, held in place by a seven-point crown of lace and seed pearls, was a full circular pattern created of net edged with wide illusion lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses with wide white satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls with matching earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. After the ceremony, a three-ccurse dinner was served to the immediate families in Moody's cafe. The dinner was prepared by Mrs. C. A. Moody and served by Mrs. Stan Bjornsen, Mrs. Junior Wilson, Mrs. Marvin Havranek and Jolene Micanek, all friends of the bride.

Late in the afternoon a buffet supper was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate families and other relatives. Mrs. Arthur Schroetlin sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the four-tier wedding cake which was decorated in the bride's colors and topped with a minia-ture bride and bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from the Lynch public school with the class of 1951 and has since been teaching a rural school near her home near Bristow. The bridegroom was graduated from Butte high school with the class of 1949 and since his discharge from the army last May has been farming with his father. Mr. and Mrs. Audiss left for a short honeymoon. For going away the bride chose a navy blue dress trimmed with white. Her accessories were red and she wore the red rose corsage from her boucuet. Upon their return they will live on a farm near Butte where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. The bride will resume her teaching duties until the school term closes.
