

Mrs. Veldon Godel, nee Marlene Waring... weds in church rite at Venus.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Venus Church Is Scene of Wedding

VENUS—Miss Marlene Waring, daughter of Glen Waring of Orchard and the late Mrs. Waring, and Veldon Godel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Godel of O'Neill, were married Sunday, March 27, at St. Paul's Lutheran church at Venus.

Rev. William Roth, church pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. F. E. Pierce, organist, accompanied the soloist, Joanne Von Seggerne, who sang "Oh, Perfect Lover," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a waltz-length gown of chantilly lace over white satin. The lace bodice had a pointed waistline with Queen Ann collar and featured long, fitted sleeves pointed at the wrists. The bouffant skirt was gathered to the pointed waistline.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a beaded tiara. The bride wore a single strand pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Her matron-of-honor, Mrs. Ronald Ressel, wore a strapless waltz-length gown of lavender net over taffeta with matching stole and head piece and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Ronald Ressel was bestman. Both the bridegroom and his attendant wore dark suits.

Janice Heiss, flower girl, appeared in a mint green brocade organza dress over green taffeta with a matching net head piece.

Bobby Pease, ringbearer, was dressed in a white suit and carried the rings on a small white satin pillow.

The bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Waring and Mrs. Scheer, both wore navy blue with yellow corsages.

The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with a pink carnation corsage.

Donald Godel of Norfolk, brother of the bridegroom, and Robert Schuett, cousin of the bride, ushered. Mrs. Donald Godel had charge of the guest book.

Miss Joan Godel and Miss Maxine Ackles opened the gifts.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors for over 175 guests. Lavender and white decorated the church parlors. A three-tier wedding cake trimmed with yellow roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, centered the bride's table. The cake was baked by Mrs. Loyd Godel, and decorated by Mrs. Robert Cook. Mrs. Elgin Ray, friend of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Urwiler poured.

The bride was graduated from O'Neill high school and has been employed at O'Neill Auto Supply the past two years. Mr. Godel also attended O'Neill high school and is employed at Peterson's Clothing.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to Omaha and through the Ozarks. They will make their home in O'Neill at the Bowen apartments.

50% of Heart Fund Goes into Research

O'Neill heart fund chairman, Dr. Robert M. Langdon, reports he has received a copy of the American Heart Association's 1954 annual report, which shows that more than one of every two dollars was invested in research.

Copies of the report have been sent to all of the 200 heart fund chairmen in the state by the Nebraska Heart Association so the public will be kept informed on how its contributions have been spent.

The report indicates that 50.9 percent of money available to the American Heart Association went to research support. All affiliates, such as the Nebraska Heart Association, allocate a quarter of their funds to the national organization.

During 1954, the national office appropriated almost one million dollars to research. The state and local heart affiliates invested $1,800,000 additional for studies in their own areas.

Lemon-Cream Coconut Birthday Cake

Here's a suggestion for a springtime birthday cake. It's as colorful as the yellow daffodil, and you can make it quick as a bunny.

This recipe combines two of the new mixes which make cooking so easy for the modern housewife. Make the two layers (8 or 9 inch) with your favorite yellow cake mix, then between the layers and over the top and sides spread Lemonade Filling.

Make this filling with a can of California's frozen concentrate for lemonade. Packed in the handy 6-ounce can is the juice of tasty, tangy fresh California lemons, just with sugar added.

California Lemonade Filling

1 can (6-oz.) frozen concentrate for lemonade	2 tablespoons cornstarch
Water to make 1 1/2 cups liquid	2 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup sugar	2 egg yolks
	2 tablespoons butter

Method: Mix concentrate for lemonade with water to make 1 1/2 cups liquid. Combine with sugar, cornstarch, and flour and cook over direct moderate heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Boil 1 minute. Remove from heat. Beat a little of this mixture with the slightly beaten egg yolks. Beat into remaining hot mixture. Return to heat and cook 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and add butter.

When the Lemonade Filling cools, spread thickly between both layers. Put together, then spread over top and sides of cake. Sprinkle shredded coconut generously over top and sides of cake.
