

'Oiltown USA' Film Coming to Chambers

CHAMBERS—"Oiltown, USA," released by Billy Graham Evangelistic films, will be shown in Chambers on Thursday, April 17. Arrangements are in charge of Earl Schwenk, who has secured use of the school for the showing.

Evangelist Graham amazed the entertainment and religious world with the world's first Christian western film, "Mr. Texas." More than five million persons have seen the film in its first two years of showings, and the Graham organization reported that over 135,000 persons made "decisions for Christ" through the ministry of the picture during the first 12 months of showings.

"Oiltown, USA" was filmed during Graham's crusade in Houston, Tex., and features the young evangelist and his team in meetings in Rice stadium where the attendance was as high as 60,000 for a single service.

Featured in the 94-minute full-color film are Colleen Townsend Evans, Paul Power, Robert Clarke, Georgia Lee, Ralph Hoopes, and the stars of "Mr. Texas," Redd Harper and Cindy Walker.

The doors of the school will be opened at 6:30 p.m., with the picture beginning at 8 p.m. All seats are on a "first come" basis, with no admission charge.

Dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conzols were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Van Horn, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McVay and family and Gene Seeger. The occasion honored Mr. and Mrs. McVay on their 21st wedding anniversary.

Native of Monowi Going to India

LYNCH—Mrs. Eleanore Lewis Tishkins of Chadron has been appointed by the American board of foreign missions, Congregational Christian churches, for a three-year term in its Marathi mission in India.

Mrs. Tishkins will be manager of the sisal fiber industry in Ahmednager, a handicraft industry started by Congregational Christian missionaries for destitute people of the area. It is now used as a model for similar pieces of work in other parts of India.

Mrs. Tishkin is the widow of Rev. Frank Tishkins, pastor of the Congregational church at Chadron who died in 1954.

Born in Monowi, and educated at Nebraska Wesleyan university, Mrs. Tishkin was married in Bethel, Conn., where her husband was then pastor. Together they served 21 years of pastorates in Lincoln and Dayton and Sheridan, Wyo., and Chadron.

Mrs. Tishkins hopes to sail for her new post in India in April.

21 Present for WSCS Meeting

STUART—The Women's Society of the Community church held a regular meeting in the church basement Thursday afternoon, March 24, with 21 members and one visitor present.

The devotions were led by Mrs. Roy Rhodes and the lesson "An Expanding Church" was given by Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Berlin Mitchell.

The society voted to form three circles and the chairmen chosen for the circles are Mrs. Fred Zink, Mrs. Ora Yarges and Mrs. Stanley Cobb.

The project of buying new silverware for the dining room was discussed.

A luncheon was served by the hostesses Mrs. Z. X. Marshall, Mrs. Walter Ouart and Mrs. Fred Tasler.

GRANDMOTHER DIES

Mrs. Mattie Diedrick died in Grand Junction, Colo., last Thursday. Funeral services were conducted there Sunday. Mrs. Diedrick was the grandmother of John Gilstrap of O'Neill.

A/2c James DeBacker of Ft. Warren, Wyo., spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. DeBacker.

Easter Egg Hatches Flowers

Actress Georgia Landeau admires an Easter bouquet of spring flowers arranged by Alyn Wayne, official stylist for a group of 10,000 retail florists. The flowers are massed in the colorful profusion in which they might grow in a country garden. Using an egg-shaped pottery bowl that complements the beauty of the flowers, Alyn Wayne has chosen daffodils, tulips, and snapdragons for this spring-time burst of color. He has completed the arrangement with spiral eucalyptus.
