For Lent Or Later

This delicious seafood and rice casserole was made especially for packaged pre-cooked rice. A real quick-easy dish—it's made in two steps. First, bring the liquid ingredients to a boil; add the fish and peas and a five-ounce box of Minute Rice—right from the box! Top this with fish and pop into the oven, and in twenty minutes it's cooked, ready to serve and absolutely delicious. Here's a Lenten suggestion you'll make all year long.

- Seafood Supreme 1 1/2 cups (5-ounce package) Minute Rice 1 can salmon or tuna or shrimp 1 box frozen peas, thawed 1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese Paprika

Mix soup, water, onion, lemon juice, salt, and pepper in a saucepan. Bring to a boil over medium heat; stir occasionally. Pour about half the soup mixture into a greased 1 1/2-quart casserole. Then in layers, add the packaged pre-cooked rice (right from the box), sea food, and peas. Add remaining soup, top with cheese, sprinkle with paprika. Cover. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 20 minutes. Serves 4 or 5.

Note: For variety use celery soup instead of the mushroom and if you like, you can omit one or all of these: the onion, the lemon juice, the peas.

Information and necessary forms reached officers here on March 1. Prompt action was taken, officers said, to make the selection and send in the application and fees, but all reservations had been filled.

Girls' state officers reported that more than one hundred applications were returned in the next mail, indicating that those units had made selections prior to the time they received their applications. Since there is room for only 254 girls with 348 units in Nebraska, some applications always are rejected.
