Inman Cagers, Peppers Feted at Banquet

INMAN — On Monday evening, March 28, at the Maxcy Memorial addition the Inman Community club entertained the high school basketball teams, the Pep squad and Coach and Mrs. Jesse Hughes at a 7 o'clock banquet.

The three-course dinner was cooked and served to more than one hundred persons by the women of the Community club. The tables were decorated in the school colors and the four trophies that the teams have won this year were exhibited. Supt. Harold Nelson was toastmaster. Ira Watson welcomed the guests in behalf of the club.

Don Kelly, high school senior, responded in behalf of the school, team and squad. Special musical numbers were provided by Sharon Cunningham, Conda Couch, Linelle Tompkins, Bonnie Banks and Bob Reimers.

Mary Jo Roth April Bride in Church Ceremony

CHAMBERS — Miss Mary Jo Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roth of Chambers, became the bride Sunday, April 3, of Jack D. Beierle of Columbus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Beierle of Columbus, at a 2 o'clock afternoon rite at the Methodist church in Chambers.

Rev. J. M. Hodgkin, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before a chancel decorated with baskets of daffodils, white carnations, snapdragons and greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown in bridal white of imported chantilly lace and nylon net. The fitted bodice featured a scoop neckline trimmed with daisies and pearls and long tapered sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. The bouffant skirt styled with pleats of net and lace panels, fell into a chapel-length train of lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses on a lace heart background.

Mrs. Elwyn Robertson was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a gown of yellow lace and net and carried a bouquet of white carnations and colored sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Gilbert Janssen of Platte Center and Mrs. Henry Miller of Columbus, both sisters of the bridegroom. They wore orchid and green gowns of lace and net respectively and carried bouquets identical to that of the matron-of-honor.

Elwyn Robertson, brother-in-law of the bride, was bestman. Groomsman were Gilbert Janssen of Platte Center and Henry Miller of Columbus. Both were the bridegroom's brothers-in-law.

Harold Gigax of Columbus, cousin of the bride, and Marvin Sanford of North Platte ushered.

Janice and Jerry Robertson, niece and nephew of the bride, were flowergirl and ringbearer.

Mrs. C. V. Robertson played appropriate music before the wedding and accompanied Miss Kay Eisenhauer, soloist, who sang, "The Holy City," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was given by the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors. A four-tier wedding cake centered the bride's buffet table and was cut by Mrs. Harold Herstedt of North Platte. The bridegroom's cake, a four-tier chocolate cake, was cut by Mrs. Albert Gigax of Columbus. Mrs. Marvin Sanford of North Platte poured. The bride doll cake and two bridesmaids doll cakes served as decoration.

For traveling the bride wore a turquoise faille coat dress with navy blue accessories and the carnation corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Beierle was graduated from Chambers high school and attended Norfolk Junior college. Before her marriage, she was employed in the county clerk's office.

Mr. Beierle was graduated from Columbus high school and is now employed by the Herman Waerth Construction company. The couple will be at home in Columbus.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roth of Bartlesville, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins, Kay and Tommy of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Herstedt and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sanford and family, all of North Platte; Mrs. Harriett Herstedt, Mrs. Joe Prybill and Bernard Kildare, all of Paxton; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gigax and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dirks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Schrieber, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Beierle and Don, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Beierle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, Ruth Blaser, Dorothy Kyriess, Joan Biggs, Irene Wilczynski and Johnny Heller, all of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Janssen, Miss Platte Center; S/Sgt. and Mrs. K. L. McMullen, Mary Lou Price and Hortense Robbins, all of Omaha.
