

75 Friends, Kin Fete Snelsons

ATKINSON—On Sunday, April 3, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Snelson celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary by holding open-house from 2 to 4 p.m. at their home in Atkinson. Seventy-five friends and relatives called to congratulate the couple in spite of the disagreeable wind and dust which prevailed that day.

Arlis Edwards, a granddaughter, had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Lucy French of Lexington, a niece of Mr. Snelson, had charge of the guest book.

The dining room table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake of pink-and-white, topped with a miniature bride and groom. This cake was made by Deloris Fox of Newport. It was presented by Opal Vargason to her parents. Large candles and pink roses were on either side of the cake.

Pink-and-white cup cakes and coffee were served to the guests. Those in charge of preparing and arranging refreshments were Mrs. Alberta Hoffman of Stuart, Charles McMillan of Atkinson and Delbert Edwards of Amelia. Mrs. Ira Goodwin and Mrs. Delbert Edwards served the guests.

Old friends who came from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Alva Inness of Meadow Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Iverson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Werner, all of St. Edward; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Furby of Albion; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook of Bartlett; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sanford and family of Cedar Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Butterfield and family of Wood Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Busted of Newman Grove; Mrs. Lucy French, Ronald Greenlee and Mrs. Lulu Greenlee, all of Lexington.

The other daughters, Mrs. Don Houston of Sedro Woolley, Wash., Mrs. Clifford Green of Veneta, Calif., Mrs. George Cutler of Rockford, Ida., Mrs. Edna Jones of Medford, Ore., and Mrs. James Sabina of Portland, Ore., a sister of Mrs. Snelson, plan to talk to the Snelsons by telephone today (Thursday)—the true anniversary date.

The only son, Emel, and family were on hand for the event.

Street-Widening Slate Triumphs

Both Marcellus and Walling slates were born out of the petition method. (A caucus hasn't been held here in several decades.)

None of the margins was considered decisive because a switch of 25 votes in any of the wards might have changed the council seatings.

H. L. Lindberg and Mrs. Loreta Hynes, both incumbents, were easily re-elected to the board of education for three-year terms. Both captured more than 800 votes each. There was a flurry of writs for Leigh Reynolds, who collected 179.

The mail vote showed: Walling—10; Marcellus—5; Golden—2; Rodman—2; Johnson—1; Coyne—5; Heerman—3; Petrov—3; Lindberg—10; Hynes—8.

Meanwhile, the C. J. Gatz-Jack Arbuthnot petition seeking an injunction against the council is pending in Holt county district court. Answer dates on latest litigation are April 8 for the defendants and April 15 for the plaintiffs.

Mr. Gatz told The Frontier he would offer no comment at this time.
